2% arrivals to be tested from Saturday

Modi holds high-level meet, urges everyone to follow pandemic-appropriate behaviour

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

AMID a spike in Covid-19 cases globally, the government on Thursday announced random sampling of 2% of all international arrivals at airports from 10 am on Saturday. Children under 12 will be exempted from sampling if they are not found to be symptomatic of Covid.

The Union health ministry in its advisory updated its Covid protocol for international fliers and at points of entry like airports, seaports and the land border. It included thermal screening and physical distancing.

The decision came after Prime Minister Narendra Modi held a high-level meeting and cautioned against complacency while urging everyone to follow Covid-appropriate behaviour, especially given the upcoming festive season, including wearing masks in crowded public places.

The meeting was held after Union health minister Mansukh Mandaviya, who had written to Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Tuesday to follow the pandemic protocol during his Bharat Jodo Yatra or suspend it, informed Parliament that the Centre is keeping a close eye on new Covid variants and taking all possible steps to combat it.

As of now, India has four cases of the highly contagious Omicron sublineage BF.7, two each in Gujarat and Odisha. It's BF.7 that is driving the virus surge in China. Masks were back in Parliament with most members, including the prime minister, putting it on.

Avoid public gatherings

The Indian Medical Association (IMA) advised people to avoid public gatherings like marriages, political or social meetings, and international travel. It sought proactive steps to combat the virus

In the review meeting, Modi directed officials to strengthen surveillance and stressed the need to ensure that the entire Covid infrastructure is maintained at a high level of preparedness in terms of equipment, processes and human resources.

He advised states to audit Covid-specific facilities to ensure operational readiness, including oxygen cylinders, PSA plants and ventilators. He also directed officials to ramp up testing and genomic sequencing. Modi sought a fresh push to booster doses, especially for vulnerable and elderly groups.

In Parliament, Mandaviya said the Covid positivity rate in the country was down to 0.14% in the week ending December 22 though infection cases were spiralling in a few countries.

K'TAKA MAKES COVID TEST MUST FOR ILI AND SARI CASES FROM TODAY

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi/Bengaluru

IN the wake of reports on the spread of sub-variant of the Omicron virus in the country, the Karnataka government has issued an eight-point guideline to prevent the spread of the virus in the state. The decision was taken at a meeting chaired by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and attended by Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar, members of a high-level advisory committee and senior officials of health department.

Sudhakar said wearing masks indoors and testing all Influenza Like Illness (ILI) and Severe Acute Respiratory Illness (SARI) cases have been made mandatory from Friday.

The minister said that in addition to testing ILI and SARI, 2 per cent of people arriving at hospitals would also be randomly tested. Masks have been made mandatory in spaces with air conditioners (ACs) as well. The oxygen plants set up at various hospitals will be maintained, Covid hospitals will be identified and private hospitals will also be directed to reserve beds for infected patients. The state will be in constant touch with the Central government and follow the proposed guidelines, he said.

Special vaccination camps will be organised to ensure 100 per cent coverage of the booster dose. The minister said people became lenient as the number of cases went down and did not come forward to take the booster dose. So far, only 20 per cent of people in Karnataka have been administered the booster dose. P3

New Bill to decriminalise minor offences in 42 Acts

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday introduced the Jan Vishwas Bill in the Lok Sabha, which seeks to decriminalise minor offences to promote ease of business. The Bill, tabled by Union commerce minister Piyush Goyal, proposes to amend 183 provisions across 42 Acts administered by 19 ministries including finance, commerce, environment, road transport and highways, ports and electronics.

The Bill was introduced amid protests by the Opposition over the recent clashes between Indian and Chinese troops at Tawang in Arunachal Pradesh.

Presenting the bill, Goyal said the government has adopted several measures to promote ease of doing business. He added that the government wants to do away with punishment provisions for minor offences.

"We have to trust people. For minor mistakes, people should not be punished. There should be a provision for paying fines for minor offences," he said.

The minister added that in order to decriminalise offences, the government has repealed about 1,500 old laws, introduced 3,500 norms and simplified 39,000 compliances. According to him, the proposed law will also help reduce the burden on the judiciary.

The bill also proposes the rationalisation of monetary penalties, depending on the gravity of the offence.

The bill was later referred to a 31-member joint committee of Parliament for scrutiny.

The joint Parliamentary panel includes Lok Sabha MPs P P Chaudhary, Sanjay Jaiswal, Rajendra Agrawal, Poonam Pramod Mahajan, Gaurav Gogoi, A Raja, and Sougata Ray. The names of 10 members of the Rajya Sabha will be announced later.

The committee will be required to submit its report to Parliament in the second part of the Budget session next year.

India, China hold talks amid fresh tensions

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

AMID fresh tensions over the recent clashes between Indian and Chinese troops in the Tawang sector, India and China held a high-level military talks on the eastern Ladakh border standoff, according to a joint statement issued on Thursday.

The 17th round of Corps Commander-level meeting was held at the Chushul-Moldo border meeting point on the Chinese side of the Line of Actual Control on December 20. "Building on the progress made after the last meeting on 17th July 2022, the two sides exchanged views on the resolution of the relevant issues along the LAC in the western sector in an open and constructive manner," the joint statement read.

The meeting, which lasted for about 10 hours, took place 11 days after the clash at Yangtse area in the Tawang sector of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Indian side reportedly insisted on resolving the issues at the remaining friction points of Demchok and Depsang in eastern Ladakh.

The meeting resulted in "a frank and in-depth discussion, keeping in line with the guidance provided by the State leaders to work for the resolution of the remaining issues at the earliest, which would help in restoration of peace and tranquility along the LAC in the Western sector."

In the interim, the two sides agreed to maintain the security and stability on the ground in the western sector. It was also agreed to stay in "close contact" and maintain dialogue through military and diplomatic channels.

The 3,488 km long LAC is divided into eastern sector (Arunachal Pradesh and Sikkim), central sector (Uttarakhand and Himachal Pradesh) and western sector (Ladakh). The average height ranges from 10,000 ft at Arunachal Pradesh to over 18,700 ft at Karakoram Pass in Ladakh.

Stand on border unchanged, says K'taka Assembly

SUBHASH CHANDRA NS @ Belagavi

THE Karnataka Assembly on Thursday passed a unanimous resolution to condemn the statements of Maharashtra leaders over the border issue, and maintained there is no change in Karnataka's stand with regard to the Mahajan Commission report.

CM Basavaraj Bommai, who read out the resolution in the Assembly, said, "It has been 66 years now since the Mahajan Commission report was tabled. The Maharashtra-Karnataka border issue is a closed chapter." He pointed out that Maharashtra rejected the report and moved the Supreme Court in 2004. "As per Article 3 of the Constitution, only the Parliament has the power to review this issue," he said, and informed the Assembly that Karnataka will protect its land, water and language even if it needs to take the legal route. "We have constituted Karnataka Border and River Protection Committee, which is headed by retired Supreme Court judge, Justice Shivaraj Patil, and Supreme Court senior counsel Mukul Rohatgi and former advocate general Udaya Holla are members of it."

Advocate wants Suvarna Soudha on rent for b'day

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

THE Suvarna Vidhana Soudha in Belagavi becomes a ghost house once the winter session is over, said an advocate in a letter to the Chairman of the Legislative Council on Thursday, requesting him that the "white elephant" be rented out for celebrating his daughter's birthday.

For the ongoing winter session, the government is spending ₹37 crore.

Mallikarjun Choukashi, an advocate from Gokak taluk, stated, "My daughter completes five years and will be ready to take admission in Class 1. It will be a once in a lifetime moment for her. I request you to allow me to celebrate the event at the Soudha."

The government has also shown reluctance in shifting some state-level offices to the Soudha in Belagavi from Bengaluru even after leaders and organisations have been demanding it for years. Since 2006, winter sessions are being held in Soudha. The amount spent on sessions so far are: ₹8 crore in 2013, ₹14 crore (2014), ₹13 crore (2015), ₹16 crore (2016), ₹31 crore (2017), ₹13.85 crore (2018), and ₹32 crore (in 2021).

Once free, Sobhraj plans globetrotting for documentary on his life

HOIHNU HAUZEL @ New Delhi

NOW that Nepal's Supreme Court has ordered the release of Charles Sobhraj, what might be the future road map for the French national?

"There are no more legal issues left in Nepal for him. He is a free man. Otherwise, the government would have already presented any remaining case or charge before the court," says his exuberant lawyer Gopal Siwakoti 'Chintan'.

It was six years after his release from India's Tihar jail that Sobhraj resurfaced in Nepal and was arrested in 2003. The Central Jail in Sundhara, a locality in the heart of Kathmandu, where he was lodged, has three blocks: the Central Prison, Bhadra Prison and Women Prison. Sobhraj is in the Central Prison's Golghar block in solitary confinement.

Chintan was one of the few people who interacted with Sobhraj regularly. When he was approached by the staff at Central Jail to lend legal advice to Sobhraj, the senior advocate was in two minds. Given his "past record as reported in the media and found in books," he said he was a little hesitant.

Sobhraj (L) with Gopal Siwakoti (R)

"But later I thought it is not the work of a lawyer to pass judgement on anyone's past or present but service the rights and interests of a victimised person," says Chintan.

According to Chintan, lack of enthusiastic, effective and expert lawyers on prisoners' rights was the main reason that delayed his release. "Otherwise, the same legal case could have been made as soon as he had crossed the age of 65, which is some 14 years ago," he adds.

With time, Chintan began to see other sides to his client and realised there is more to him than the reputation he carries. Behind bars, Sobhraj devoured books. "I also very impressed with his knowledge of human rights and criminal jurisprudences of not only Nepal but also India, the UK, Europe, the US and of the UN system," he says. Of course, his "good manners, intelligence, hard-working nature and concern for his fellow inmates stood him in good stead," he adds.

In prison, Chintan says, Sobhraj took up the cases of thousands of fellow prisoners who had suffered unfair trials, inadequate food and nutrition, poor living conditions and the lack of proper space for sleep and clothes among others. He also filed a writ petition in the Nepal Supreme Court seeking adequate ration and proper healthcare for prisoners.

Sobhraj, who spoke to this writer a few months ago, was hopeful of freedom and said three months after his release would be spent traveling across different countries for a documentary on his life. At 78, zest for life is something Sobhraj won't be lacking at all.

BBMP bulldozers back in action after 1.5 months

Two houses, two sheds razed in Mahadevapura zone

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@Bengaluru

AFTER nearly two months, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) restarted its stormwater drain encroachment removal drive on Thursday by razing two houses and two sheds at Munnekolalu village in Mahadevapura zone.

The Palike halted the drive on October 10 following a High Court stay. The Palike was also waiting for survey details and a hearing by Bengaluru East Tahsildar Naga Prashanth. The drive was launched after the stay was vacated and BBMP got the tahsildar's clearance on December 13 to go ahead with the demolition under Section 104 of the Land Revenue Act, 1964 and the Disaster Management Act, 2005.

After getting the encroachment clearance order, the BBMP had issued notices to RK Mandal and SK Bhattacharya, both ex-servicemen, to vacate their houses. On Thursday, their houses were demolished under police protection.

Bhattacharya took photos and videos of his "dream home" before the demolition. "On Wednesday, I cleared the loan which I had taken to build my house and today, it was razed. I have been staying here since 1996 and have paid taxes religiously," he said.

> On Wednesday, I cleared the loan which I had taken to build my house and today, it was razed. I have been staying here since 1996
> SK Bhattacharya, ex-serviceman

Hemanth Kumar, a property owner who lost half of his sheds, claimed the drive is political and houses are being targeted at the behest of a particular party. He demanded that the officials furnish a map and then carry on with the drive.

Assistant Executive Engineer (Mahadevpura) Raghavendra BN clarified that a survey was conducted and only after the tasildhar's hearing and order, the drive was carried out at Survey Number 89.

"Two houses and two sheds were razed. These properties came up on a stormwater drain. The drive was done transparently," he said and dismissed the allegations.

Three days ago, BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath had said the survey of SWDs had been completed at Yelahanka zone and, by December 28, it will be completed in the rest of the BBMP zones and the demolition drive will be resumed.

At HRBR, residents fighting for ownership

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE decades long delay by the revenue department in transferring the ownership of nearly 17 acres of its land to the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA) has put the legal status of 222 sites allotted at HRBR Layout in jeopardy.

A recent High Court verdict has set alarm bells ringing for the 150 families who have been residing here for nearly three decades.

The layout was formed by the BDA in 1984-1985 with 222 residential sites and four CA sites on 17 acres. After multiple attempts, the allottees got the sites and many are senior citizens now.

TNIE caught up with the distraught residents who furnished documents to explain their position. The crux of the issue is that the layout was formed by the BDA on the dried up Channasandra Tank (total extent: 48 acres) in Banaswadi village.

"The Lakshman Rau Committee, in its report on Bengaluru lakes, had declared Channasandra as one of the disused lakes (cannot be revived). The state government accepted the report and notified it in the gazette on June 30, 1988, too," explained Shyam Sundar, a house owner.

The revenue department is the owner of all lakes in the city and they never transferred the ownership of the area in Channasandra Tank (Survey No 211), in which the layout was formed, to the BDA.

House owners in BDA's HRBR Layout are a worried lot now | EXPRESS

Another owner, Vivek N, said the BDA had sent nine letters to the revenue department between 1993 and 2012 requesting transfer of ownership, but this has not yielded any fruit.

In January 2015, the residents got a shock when demolition notices were put up outside their houses.

"We approached the tahsildar court in KR Puram repeatedly and explained our position. The demolition did not happen. Shops built by a few private encroachers were demolished," said Sunita Harish, another allottee.

Families of two individuals, Kunnappa and Kuttappa, have also staked ownership of 17 acres here. The High Court on December 1, 2022, gave a verdict in their favour. N Tamil Selvi, another allottee, said, "The families who went to the court are very poor. It is builders who are pushing them and trying to usurp the land."

Sundar added, "We are not sure which 17 acres in this vast stretch the individuals are claiming ownership. There was indeed a lake here and how can commoners have ownership rights on a lake as it is government property. The apprehension is they might come and stake claim to the land where our houses stand."

Retired DIG (Prisons) N Jayaramiah said, "A forensic lab report had rubbished the claims of the two families. The documents submitted by them were also proved to be false."

AVIATION MINISTRY ASKS KIA TO SPREAD OUT FLIGHTS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

TO reduce passenger congestion at Kempegowda International Airport, the Ministry of Civil Aviation has asked the airport operator to immediately implement three aspects — debunch flights so that they are spread out in non-peak hours and avoid crowding inside the terminal, install more X-ray baggage machines to facilitate faster movement of passengers and put in place a robust information system so that the display board clearly reveals the waiting time status in each line to the passengers so they can switch to less crowded lines.

A high-level meet was held by the ministry with officials of the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security and representatives of Bengaluru, Mumbai and Pune airports to take steps to ease congestion in these airports.

Asked about the steps being taken, airport operator Bangalore International Airport Ltd said, "We have been working round-the-clock to regulate the crowd and establish a safe and seamless environment at the airport in response to the holiday season and increase in passenger traffic at the airport. We have deployed additional personnel at the security hold area to remind passengers to remove restricted items from their luggage."

The enhanced Benglauru airport app will get real-time info on flight status and queue time estimates, crowd rerouting, close co-ordination with immigration and CISF officials and sufficient support with designated lanes for the elderly and passengers with infants are being done.

PETER VIDAL

23rd December: Yesterday I spoke about the multiverse. Here's one piece of information I didn't give you. Some scientists believe that every time anyone of us makes a choice the universe spots that and becomes two multiverses. These then split again, when another choice is made, and so on, ad infinitum. What an amazing thought!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
In spite of the fact that everyone appears determined to pick up the wrong end of the stick, this does seem to be a good time to at least attempt to communicate. There is bound to be some considerable exaggeration, but if you tale big promises with a pinch of salt, then you should protect yourself against major blunders.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
The next forty-eight hours should raise the financial temperature. Do concentrate on your own interests, in spite of the fact the others may have their own rather complex demands. Partners could still be rather fractious, and a loved one may need placating.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
The Moon is now offering you a great deal of encouragement and you may right wrongs, make up for injustices and generally correct a serious personal imbalance. Don't imagine that you can get away with half-measures, though. It's time to go the whole way.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Make the fullest possible advantage of a series of splendid planetary aspects. Probably the prime consideration is to see that you take a little time off by yourself. Also, please don't believe unfounded rumours or imagine that others are undermining you.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You've got more personal choices coming up. The question is whether you would rather spend time with friends who may be pleasant but dull, or with intimate partners who may be highly stimulating but also rather complicated and unpredictable.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
If you have not already had some sort of completely random and ill-considered argument, whether with a close partner or a complete stranger, it may yet happen. Mind you, sometimes it does you good to blow your top! It's just that you have to clear up the mess afterwards!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
What comes to light over the next few days should strengthen your bargaining power. You should check out any legal, ethical or long-term issues today, so that when an opportunity does come along, you are well primed - and can do your best by other people.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You do have a sense of humour, even if some people don't believe it! The moment has come for you to lead others a merry dance - which is just what they deserve. Do keep a very careful eye on the financial situation, partly because a partner is liable to take up a rather extreme position.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Now that one series of intensely personal planetary aspects is on the wane, you should begin to feel slightly less hassled. Yet don't expect genuine relaxation until after another few days have passed. Actually, you're most relaxed when you're busy!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You should spend a little time tuning your body up, with special attention to exercise and diet. You are slightly sensitive at the moment, and any emotional stress could leave you feeling under the weather. That's why partners should be nice to you! I know it, and you know it, but I hope they know it!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You may leave yourself enough time for a spot of self-indulgence, but should realise that certain planets are tipping you into excess. That would never do! Remember the dangers of swinging to emotional extremes or of putting too many demands on partners.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
There is still a considerable amount of tension, but life could be extremely exciting if you have a private goal that you are determined to achieve. Only Pisceans who are totally dedicated to a passive lifestyle will resent all those mounting personal pressures.

No rules on conveying whip to elected members, HC lays down procedures

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

OBSERVING that even after 35 years the state government has not framed the rules under Karnataka Local Authorities (Prohibition of Defection) Act, 1987 after the Act was enacted, the Karnataka High Court laid down the procedure to be followed till the rules are framed.

The procedure are regarding the manner in which the service of a whip of a party is to be communicated to its elected members during voting in favour of their candidates contesting for the post of president and vice-president in local bodies.

The court made it clear that disqualification proceedings cannot be initiated against elected members if the whip is not communicated.

Justice NS Sanjay Gowda passed the order while allowing the petition filed by Savita and two others, challenging the order passed by the DC of the Town Municipal Council, Bagalkot, disqualifying them under sections 3 and 4 of the Act, on October 28, 2021, for allegedly violating the whip.

"The state government could have prescribed a mode of service of notice by framing rules. Even after 35 years, the government is yet to frame the rules, which has resulted in a gray area in the matter of service of a direction (whip) issued by a political party. This grey area is prone to misuse by political parties and its members," the court said. The court also noted that since the government has not framed any rules, this has resulted in several litigations.

Lot of time at hand, student makes hoax bomb threat

A 20-year-old third-year BTech student, who was frustrated because of the long distance between his residence in Kudlu Gate near Parappana Agrahara and Kempegowda International Airport, was arrested on Tuesday for tweeting a hoax bomb threat, hoping that a new airport will come up, close to his home. The student, Vaibhav Ganesh came to the city from Jalanadhar, Punjab, where he is a student in NIT. He also tagged the airport in his tweet, which was deleted later, but it sparked panic among netizens. "After coming to the city from Punjab, he claimed that he was getting frustrated while travelling due to the long distance. He hoped his tweet will create flutters, and another airport will be built closer to the city. He tweeted, 'I will bomb the blr airport so they can rebuild one closer to the city (sic)'". He tweeted around 10.15 pm on December 10, and the terminal manager Roopa Mathew had filed a complaint, said an officer. The Bengaluru International Airport police registered a case, and then sought help from cyber experts to trace the accused through his Twitter handle. His mobile phone has also been recovered. A case has been filed for alleged public mischief (IPC 505) and anonymous criminal intimidation (IPC 507).

City hospitals ready to tackle next Covid surge

NAMRATA SINDWANI @ Bengaluru

BENGALURU hospitals authorities said that they are fully prepared to tackle any resurgence in Covid-19 cases after fighting the previous waves.

The doctors said that there is no need to panic since at present as the burden of cases is low in Karnataka.

However, they advised that Covid-appropriate behaviour like wearing masks and using sanitisers should be followed.

They highlighted that after the cases reduced, the hospital staffers have become complacent over Covid-19 protocols. Now, they have been advised to follow the protocols strictly.

Dr Srinivas R, the Resident Medical Officer (RMO), Victoria Hospital, said that, at present, the hospital has four ventilator beds for Covid-19 patients. Dr Srinivas said that if required, they will increase the numbers, and added, that they have the required infrastructure.

The doctors at KC General Hospital said they do not have any dedicated Covid-19 wards at present, and are awaiting the health department guidelines. They said it will not be ideal to suddenly shift beds to Covid-19 wards in hospitals as non-Covid-19 patients should also be treated with the same priority.

The hospital committees are expected to convene meetings after the health department issues guidelines. The Federation of All India Medical Association (FAIMA) president, Dr Rohan Krishnan said there is no need to panic if the doctors and officials are vigilant and follow Covid protocols. He said people in India have developed immunity after battling the earlier waves.

On the day of community's massive convention in Belagavi village, team meets Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai will discuss legal aspects of including Lingayat Panchamasalis under the 2A reservation category and announce it officially within 10 days, said BJP senior leader minister Basangouda Patil Yatnal on Thursday. Soon after, the community members, who have been holding an agitation over the last few months, withdrew their protest.

Yatnal was addressing a massive rally of Panchamasalis at Bastwad village in Belagavi on Thursday after holding a meeting with Bommai to discuss the reservation issue. Yatnal said he, along with other leaders from the community, held a detailed discussion with the chief minister, who assured them of completing the required legal procedure and declaring the reservation for the community before December 29.

Panchamasalis, led by Basavajaya Mrityunjaya Swami of Kudalasangama, had launched a massive agitation demanding the reservation status. Earlier this year, Bommai had assured the community that their demand would be met by December 19. But as the deadline passed and he did not make any announcement, Panchamasalis planned a mega rally even as the Belagavi legislature session is going on to put pressure on the government. The seer set a new deadline of December 22 (Thursday) for the government and also announced that the community would hold a massive rally.

Accordingly on Thursday, thousands of people from across the state descended on Bastwad village, which is 100 km from Belagavi – where the legislature is in session. Seeing the massive turnout and sensing that the situation could go out of hand, Bommai invited Panchamasali leaders to meet him at the Suvarna Vidhana Soudha to discuss the issue. He met a delegation of Yatnal, former MLAs Vishwanath Patil, Vijayanand Kashappanavar and others. With the new deadline and leaders convincing the community members, the agitation was called off, lifting a load off the government and police.

Thousands of vehicles that were parked near the venue affected traffic movement on the Pune-Bengaluru highway.

Congress list likely by Jan, says KPCC working prez

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH less than six months to go for the Karnataka Assembly elections, the political scene is hotting up in the state. Days after JDS released its first list of candidates, the Congress has announced that its list is likely to be released by January.

Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) working president Ramalinga Reddy on Thursday said that the party has constituted an election committee to finalise probable candidates to fight the 2023 polls.

Claiming that there is a wave in favour of the Congress in Karnataka, the former minister said, "There is a demand from aspirants to contest on a Congress ticket as everyone is aware that the party will come to power... hence number of aspirants has gone up... BJP has no chance of winning and therefore they have less number of aspirants."

Slamming BJP national general secretary CT Ravi for his recent dog jibe, Reddy said, "His (Ravi) remark represents BJP's culture." He said BJP leaders misinterpreted AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge's recent statement he had made in Rajasthan. "Kharge did not say ancestors of BJP are dogs. BJP leaders are misquoting him," he added.

Will defeat HDK in C'patna, says Yogeshwar

ENS @ Bengaluru

BJP MLC CP Yogeshwar on Thursday shielded party general secretary BL Santhosh from the JDS attack and vowed to defeat the regional party in the Vokkaliga stronghold of Channapatna in the 2023 Assembly elections.

Yogeshwar, considering the importance of Santhosh in deciding the ticket for him in the Assembly polls, said, "(JDS president) CM Ibrahim should speak sensibly. Santhosh comes from a humble family background, yet (JDS senior leader) HD Kumaraswamy spoke disrespectfully of him." Yogeshwar, who is seeking to contest against Kumaraswamy, said,"Santhosh said when elections come, JDS leaders go before the people and shed crocodile tears."

Attacking MLA Anitha Kumaraswamy, he said, "She is encouraging women to borrow as much as they want under the Stree Shakti scheme. She is assuring them that if JDS comes to power, the loans would be written off. This is ridiculous. People should not believe in such claims."

Why Covid protocols only for Cong, asks Siddu

ENS @ Belagavi

FORMER chief minister and CLP leader Siddaramaiah hit out at the Centre for attempting to impose restrictions on the Bharat Jodo Yatra of the Congress and questioned whether the Covid-19 protocols were aimed only at Congress' walk. He said the state BJP is also conducting a Jana Sankalp Yatra and questioned why Union Health Minister Munsukh Mandaviya is not giving lessons on Covid protocols to state BJP leaders.

"Fearful of the success of Bharat Jodo Yatra, led by Rahul Gandhi, the BJP is trying to use Covid protocols as a weapon to stop it. The Centre should immediately release an official order about Covid guidelines, if they are really concerned about people's health. We will then follow it," he said.

"Has the coronavirus given a promissory note that it would not spread amidst the BJP yatras," Siddaramaiah added.

Siddaramaiah also took the government to task over the uncontrolled spread of Lumpy Skin Disease among cattle and alleged that the Animal Husbandry Department has not only failed to rein in the disease, but also lagged behind in vaccinating the animals. He also mocked the BJP government by questioning their commitment to protecting cows.

Meanwhile, KPCC president D K Shivakumar, who was at the Hubballi Airport, claimed that the BJP government is scared after watching people's response to Rahul Gandhi's Bharat Jodo Yatra. The BJP has taken rising Covid cases as an excuse to stop the Congress' rise. The BJP is planning to advance the elections, citing the possible pandemic threat and "we have unofficial information that the Prime Minister's Office has already informed some officials about it. We are ready to face Assembly polls anytime".

Ravi creates flutter, MLAs to discuss terror

HUBBALLI: MLAs from all parties on Thursday decided to discuss the issue of terrorism brought up by BJP national general secretary CT Ravi's, though his comments created a flutter for a while in the Assembly. Taking an indirect jibe at KPCC president DK Shivakumar, Ravi said that a recent remark made by a president of a major political party over the Mangaluru cooker blast and openly questioning the police action looked like he was sympathising with terrorists and terror organisations. "It was learnt from the preliminary investigation that the alleged terrorist involved in the Mangaluru blast was planning to target a chief minister's function in the city and schoolchildren. If he had succeeded, what would be the repercussions? The state and country have already suffered a lot due to terrorism. It should not be entertained," he added.

State mulls body to fix UKP-3 compensation

The state cabinet has decided to set up an authority to fix a uniform compensation for all lands that will be acquired under the third stage of the Upper Krishna Project (UKP-3). Later, the government will disburse compensation to all the affected in adherence to the uniform price fixed by the authority, said Water Resources Minister Govind Karjol. According to him, 14 villages in Babaleshwar taluk, six in Kolhar taluk, nine in Nidagundi taluk (all Vijayapura district), will be submerged due to the project.

Kageri allows special discussion on animal attacks

The discussion of human-animal conflict came to the fore as JDS MLA Ashvin Kumar expressed concern over the recent leopard attacks in T Narasipura, his constituency. As most members raised similar issues related to their constituencies, Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri allowed a special discussion on the same. Kumar, raising the issue during Zero Hour, informed the House that three persons were killed by leopards in a short period of time, and MLA Yathindra also expressed the same. The big cats shelter in sugarcane fields, and the farmers fear for their lives, while agricultural activities have come to a standstill.

Legislature not fiefdom of anyone: Ranganath

ENS @ Bengaluru

KUNIGAL MLA Dr Ranganath Doddaiah, who triggered a massive showdown between ruling BJP and opposition Congress in the Assembly on Tuesday by refusing to move from the well of the House, said on Thursday that BJP should stop being a big bully.

Narrating Wednesday's incident, he said BJP ministers and legislators were shouting at him to get out of the well, while some were also screaming for his suspension. "This is nothing but an attempt to intimidate legislators," he said.

Ranganath, who did not attend the ongoing Assembly session in Belagavi on Thursday because of some engagements at his constituency, said the Karnataka legislature is not the fiefdom of anyone. "I was only raising the issue of bus connectivity for students from rural areas because that is a burning issue in my constituency which is largely rural. Most of the people here go to urban areas for education. What was the need to be rude," he asked.

"Bus services have still not resumed to pre-Covid levels. My constituency has around 10,000 students and nearly 3,000 of them depend on buses to reach their educational institutions which are not within walking distance. These students need to reach their destinations regularly every working day. Was that asking for too much," he asked.

The MLA said he raised the issue with the local authorities, but they pleaded helplessness. "This issue is not specific to Kunigal constituency alone, but to many constituencies around Bengaluru and other major cities where students are at the mercy of public transport."

He alleged that Transport Minister Sriramulu has not been able to manage his department efficiently and it is adversely affecting the students. He said BJP is unable to accept the failure of the administration and that is the reason the ruling party legislators were reacting with such aggression and hostility.

Speaker irked as Madhu Swamy walks out of House

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

SPEAKER Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri expressed deep disappointment over the approach of ministers in the House, especially that of Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhu Swamy, who left the Assembly asking the former to run the House himself.

It was around 6.30 pm, when the Speaker wanted to complete the day's agenda by letting members raise their call attention. As Kageri started calling members to raise their issues, minister Madhu Swamy went out of the House, telling the speaker: "You yourself run the House."

Speaker Vishweshwar Hegde Kageri asked whether other work was more important than the session | EXPRESS

Before adjourning the House for the next day, the Speaker expressed his deep anguish and said, he was hurt by the attitude of the minister. Earlier, a majority of ministers were there to reply to questions raised by the members, and the Speaker summoned BJP chief whip Satish Reddy to bring the concerned minister to the House. While the latter informed the former that the minister has gone out on some other work, Kageri asked whether being in the session was important or attending other work.

Using the situation to their advantage, Opposition members slammed the government, saying the ministers are not serious about their responsibilities. Deputy Opposition leader U T Khader said what was the use of holding the session in North Karnataka if the government and minister are not taking it seriously. Later, the Speaker asked the minister present in the meeting to reply to members' queries.

While the main book award carries cash prize of Rs 1 lakh and a citation, the translation award carries a prize amount of Rs 50,000 and a citation. The awards will be presented at a function in New Delhi in March 2023. The selection of awards was carried out under the supervision of Dr Sarjoo Katkar, convenor of Kannada advisory board of Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi. Dr C Naganna, Chandrasekhar Vastrad and Padmaraj Dandavati were the judges for the translation award, while Dr Jagadish Koppa, Dr Mohan Kuntar and Dr Kamalakar Bhat were the judges for the translation award.

Central Sahitya Akademi President Dr Chandrashekhar Kambar has congratulated the award winners.

Chinnaswamy 2nd Dalit to win award

Devaraj B Hirehalli @ Bengaluru: After a gap of 32 years, Mudnakudu Chinnaswamy is the second Dalit writer to win the Kendra Sahitya Akademi award for 2022 in the Kannada category for his work 'Bahutvada Bhaarata Mattu Bouddha Taatvikate'. In 1990, Devanuru Mahadeva had won the award for his novel 'Kurumabale'. But in 2015, Devanuru returned the award along with his Padma Shri award which he had received in 2011, citing that there was intolerance against writers and their freedom of expression in the Prime Minister Narendra Modi-led BJP government at the Centre. Interestingly, Mudnakoodu (68) had withdrawn his poem 'Nanna kavitege' from the Class V textbook in protest against the alleged insult to Rashtrakavi Kuvempu by the former textbook review committee headed by Rohit Chakratirta. "I am happy and feel proud to receive the award. The Akademi is an independent body and the selection committee comprises progressive thinkers", Mudnakudu told TNIE.

"NOBODY can control nature. River Krishna flows through Andhra Pradesh, Telangana, Maharastra and Karnataka, but the length of the river is long in Karnataka compared to other states and it is in Karnataka that it accumulates more water. He talks about increasing the height of Koyna, but let him understand that whenever there is heavy rainfall, the water is released from the dam immediately. Otherwise there will be tremors in the vicinity," he said.

Mocking threats issued by Maharashtra leaders, Bommai said, "We cannot stoop to their level. We are cultured people. We will answer them in our way. We have bigger political will than them."

Earlier, Leader of the Opposition Siddaramaiah said that leaders of Maharashtra are behaving like goondas. "They speak like goondas and uncivilised people," he said.

Senior BJP leader B S Yediyurappa described the attitude of Maharashtra leaders as an attempt to take political mileage out of the issue and urged the chief minister to not let them succeed in their attempt. Speaker Vishveshwar Hegde Kageri thanked the assembly for the unity they displayed.

Gadag horror: After boy's murder, mother succumbs to injuries

The government school in Hadli, Gadag district; (inset) Geeta Barker

HADLI village in Gadag district, where a teacher killed a student by throwing him off the first floor of the school building on Monday, was enveloped in a pall of gloom as Geeta Barker (36), who was the deceased student's mother and a teacher at the same school, died on Thursday afternoon at Karnataka Instituite of Medical Sciences (KIMS) Hospital in Hubballi.

Geeta had suffered critical injuries after a guest teacher, Muttappa Hadagali, attacked her and her son Bharat with a spade. She was on ventilator support over the last four days and was declared dead in the afternoon.

As the news of her death spread, hundreds of villagers gathered at KIMS Hospital. They said Geeta's family has been suffering a series of unfortunate incidents over the last few years. Two years ago, her husband Yallappa met with a road accident and has been mentally and physically ill. On Monday, she lost her only son Bharat.

Now, her daughter, Amruta, who is studying in Standard 6 at Navodaya Institution at Gadag town, has to be taken care of by her mother-in-law Lakshmavva.

Lakshmavva said, "I have lost my grandson and daughter-in-law because of that cruel teacher. Bharat was an innocent child. God has delivered a great deal of injustice. Half of our family is gone now."

Somanath Yavgal, a neighbour of Gita, said, "Both Lakshmavva and Geeta's mother Ratnakka are in shock. Yallappa and Geeta got married 15 years ago."

It is said that the accused, Muttappa, who was attracted to Geeta, was angry that she was close to another teacher in the school. Muttappa and Geeta had had several arguments and even on the day before the attack, he had allegedly threatened to harm her. But she ignored the threat as it was not the first time he was doing so and came to the school on Monday.

Muttappa was allegedly angry that Geeta was interacting with the other teacher during a school excursion recently and had a fight with Geeta over it. He wanted to call Geeta, but instead went to Bharat's classroom. Muttappa asked the boy to come out of his bench and started hitting him. Geeta, who was in the next class, heard her son's cries and came to his rescue. But Muttappa hit her and Bharat with a shovel and threw the 10-year-old boy down from the first floor.

Bharat and Geeta were rushed to the taluk hospital and from there to KIMS , Hubballi, where Bharat was declared brought dead. The police, in quick action, arrested Muttappa on Tuesday.

Deer, blackbucks seized from ex-min's property

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Davanagere

Sleuths of CCB and Karnataka Forest Department on Wednesday raided the farmhouse belonging to former Congress minister SS Mallikarjun in Davanagere and seized 10 blackbucks, seven spotted deer, three mongooses, seven wild boards and two wolves. The farmhouse is located behind Kalleshwara rice mill.

The raid came following a statement given by one Senthil, who was arrested on charges of selling deer skin and bones in Bengaluru. The raid was conducted by a team led by ACP CCB Reena Suvarna. The police also handed over Senthil to the local police and some of the workers of the mill have been taken into custody for questioning. ACP Reena Suvarna said that two people have been arrested for rearing the wild animals.

Animals shifted

The animals seized were on Thursday shifted to separate enclosures at Anagodu mini-zoo. The animals will be kept under strict quarantine after which they will be allowed to join other animals, said DFO NH Jagannath.

He told TNIE that the cases have been booked under various sections of the Wild Life (Protection) Act, 1972 and further investigation is on. He also said that all the animals rescued from the mill are healthy.

SS MALLIKARJUN CLARIFIES

Former minister SS Mallikarjun claimed that he has been rearing the animals only after obtaining the licence from the forest department in 2000. "An employee who was taking care of the animals had sold the parts of the spotted deer illegally without my knowledge," he said.

POLITICS TURNS VICIOUS AS ANDHRA PARTIES TAKE POLL POSITIONS

The violent clashes between workers of the opposition Telugu Desam Party (TDP) and the ruling Yuvajana Sramika Rythu Congress Party (YSRC) at Macherla in Palnadu district, Andhra Pradesh, must be a matter of serious concern for all. We say this because we fear Macherla could well be a sign of things to come as poll fever appears to have gripped all the parties, never mind that the election is still a long way off in 2024. Macherla does have a history of violence, with faction feuds accepted as the norm. But that was over a decade ago, and a lot has changed since.

The TDP's ongoing campaign against the YSRC government triggered the latest violence. It is difficult to pin the blame on one without proof. But going by the police version, it seems the TDP leaders and cadres ventured into a sensitive area without prior permission, leading to the clashes. Sure enough, local rivalries are at play. Nonetheless, if we scratch the surface, it becomes evident that some of the leaders at the forefront of this unsavoury episode have a terrible record—and that is a charitable way of putting it. For instance, the TDP's constituency in-charge was booked for murder long ago. Giving the party's reins to him shows the party leadership's thought process. It wants a strong hand to take on the YSRC, which cannot claim the moral high ground either.

If we look at the larger picture, the worsening rhetoric of political leaders is definitely stoking tensions at the local level. TDP supremo N Chandrababu Naidu never tires of demonising YSRC chief and chief minister, Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy, not to speak of his colleagues who choose the choicest expletives regularly. The YSRC leaders, too, walk the extra mile to rub it in, in the same language. Jana Sena chief and actor Pawan Kalyan has been more vocal, using cinematic lingo in an obvious attempt to portray himself as the hero locked in a war with the villainous government. The optics and words may appear to be innocuous political entertainment, but their impact is felt at the grassroots.

Inspiring followers is one thing. But in the process, if they whip up political and communal tensions, it results in incidents like Macherla. All sides are geared up to hit the streets in the new year. They must understand that though politics is an emotion, violence cannot win hearts. It can only divide and alienate people.

IFFK ROBBED OF CHARM, ISSUES NEED URGENT FIX

The International Film Festival of Kerala (IFFK) is a prestigious event—a true showpiece of the state's versatile cinematic culture. Undoubtedly one of the best film festivals in the country, the IFFK has always been non-compromising when it comes to the choice of films, and it is one place where one will get to watch the best of world movies, classics and Indian selections.

Since its first edition, IFFK has been much more than just cinema. It has been a space for music, freedom, and creative bonding. Many well-known filmmakers of today openly claim to be 'IFFK products'. Such is the contribution of IFFK. The latest edition of IFFK, which got over last week, was also expected to be no different. However, this time, a slew of unfortunate incidents at the festival venues affected the charm normally associated with the gala event.

The online reservation system went haywire, leaving many delegates fuming. Many who had made reservations in advance had to stand outside cinema halls while 'VIPs' who had no reservations were sitting inside the halls. The theatres, spread across Thiruvananthapuram, became venues of protest. Instead of addressing the issues efficiently, the organisers preferred to call in the police to handle the delegates. Added to this was the high-handed manner in which the chairman of the Chalachitra Academy, Ranjith, responded to criticisms. He must realise that IFFK should have film lovers' interests at the core if it has to retain its charm.

The festival is no place for ego trips. One's political affiliations, or lack of it, should have nothing to do with IFFK, which is essentially an expression of creative freedom. The number of delegates is increasing yearly while the number of cinema theatres remains the same. This is the crux of all the problems that happened this time, and the festival's next edition must address this. Needless chaos, blame games, and shoddy handling of situations, as has happened this time, must be avoided at all costs. Nothing is more important than the celebration of cinema, and that must be the sole motto of every IFFK edition. The festival organisers must remember that IFFK is a destination for cinema lovers across the country. They must do everything possible to make the event bigger and better every year.

QUICK TAKE

PROMOTING MIDWIFERY

The list of business in Parliament's winter session includes the National Nursing and Midwifery Commission Bill, 2022. The lack of professional midwifery services in India leaves a critical gap in childbirth practices. Some women choose C-sections to avoid hours of painful labour. Some hospitals find it lucrative. Either way, unplanned C-sections run the risk of postpartum complications, including maternal mortality—C-section rates in some rates pip WHO limits. Health professionals back midwifery services, wrongly considered an extension of the nursing arm, to encourage regular deliveries. Some states have taken the lead in this, but it should become a national endeavour.

Loss of trust and confidence in professional investigative and regulatory agencies is a double-edged weapon

APATHY FOR INSTITUTIONAL AUTONOMY

K JAYAKUMAR
Former Kerala chief secretary and ex-VC, Thunchath Ezhuthachan Malayalam University

The erosion of institutional autonomy and freedom in decision-making has weakened Indian polity and democracy far beyond our comprehension. In the decades after Independence, several agencies like the ED, CBI, Election Commission of India, the erstwhile Planning Commission, University Grants Commission, national academies, Indian Council for Historical Research, and several such institutions were allowed to nurture their own traditions of intellectual, professional and executive autonomy. Of course, the judiciary is insulated from external influences, and the impartiality of the courts is a hallowed article of faith that sustains hope and confidence among the wronged, the weak, and the poor. Elected governments have the inescapable temptation to dilute the autonomy of at least a few of the above institutions where their writ does not run in a direct chain of command. The nation had a glimpse of such a free run of central authority during the Emergency years, when the government controlled every organisation directly after suspending civil liberties. During non-Emergency periods too, governments had fallen into this temptation, though such attempts were subtle and covert.

The conduct of these institutions in the recent past is a matter of great concern. Their actions have left a trail of avoidable hardships and humiliations to hundreds of individuals and institutions. As such excesses are often embedded in nationalistic rhetoric invoking serious provisions of law, public reactions are muted. That silence is often interpreted by the government as an endorsement of these infringements and treated as the acquiescence of civil society. Surprisingly, even when wrongly initiated proceedings have been turned down by the courts (though after a lapse of considerable time and at phenomenal cost), and the accused have been released, the sense of outrage is either non-existent or poorly articulated. Such instances have neither forced the agencies to correct their ways nor nudged the government to introspect and retract.

More than the repeated acts of omission and commission by government agencies, what is worrisome is the gradual mutation taking place in public sensitivity, making meek acceptance a normal (safe and desirable) form of national response. That reconciliation affects the very vitals of a democratic nation. It may be recalled that the state of public consciousness in our country a few decades ago was quite different.

SOURAV ROY

The (relatively rare) instances of police excesses or wrongful confinement, illegal detention or misplaced raids, humiliating interrogations and attempts to silence dissent, had always been met with strident judicial intervention, scathing media response, outrage from civil society, and condemnation by mainstream political parties. Today's national mood is quite different with no such expression in sight. With journalists and civil rights activists languishing in jails under non-bailable offences, and several citizens facing grievous charges for legitimate acts of dissent, the national mood is one of stoic tolerance bordering on indifference. There is a calculated intimidation in the air. And that has already started showing results in the form of shameless submissiveness. The 'law will take its own course' homily is self-delusional. The ruling class uses it to nurture impudence and presume legitimacy.

What is really absurd is the fact that while innocents are incarcerated, those who default the banks on staggering amounts are safe and secure as they have the required clout to escape punitive action and tweak government policies. Super swindlers merrily flee the country after messing up shareholders' and investors' money. Powerful leaders who enjoy political patronage get away with hate speeches that are meant to create bitterness among different religious communities. They bask in vitriolic glory. Getting an FIR registered against such inciters is not easy. At the same time the nation watches young girls, students and actors being hounded by the mighty state for speaking truth to power and espousing public causes close to their hearts. These contradictory images do not go unregistered in social consciousness though the expression of such indignation may not be vehement. And the print, electronic and digital media, through their constant engagement with untruth, play a major role in muting public responses.

Loss of trust and confidence in professional investigative and regulatory agencies is a two-edged weapon. As long as the ruling dispensation has no electoral instability and fragility, weakening of institutions for (short-term) political rewards is interesting. But the charm of democracy lies in the fact of impermanence. The political dispensation that is overwhelmingly powerful one day could be vulnerable tomorrow. In such unsure stages of transition, the political system looks towards these institutions and their time-tested tradition of fairness to keep the polity intact and manage the affairs of the state. But institutions once made pliable and morally gullible will be incapable to deal with such uncertain situations and honour the rule of law. Democracy draws inspiration and confidence from the faith in the fairness of Constitutional agencies and their credibility.

Who will bring back the fairness and freedom to these institutions that are the bulwark of democracy? And how? Every precious day lost in silent submission is a wasted opportunity to redeem institutional autonomy in the larger interest of democracy and Constitutional values. The judiciary and media are the only two tools that can stem the rot. Print and electronic media, despite the lure of government patronage and the fear of victimisation, must rededicate themselves to the values of free thought and expression. The judiciary has a special responsibility to reassure the ordinary citizens that dissent is their right and that the courts will protect their rights. However, as long as the true feelings of citizens are muffled out of fear and helplessness, this unnatural situation will continue unchallenged. Power can manipulate fear and morph it into submission and silence. Free and fair institutions are the reinforcements of the mansion of democracy. Once they are weakened, the mansion could collapse. It is a costly rot that should concern every citizen. And that concern and indignation indeed are the hallmarks of true nationalism. Carefully instilled fear and the resultant silence is the sclerosis of our democracy.

STEERING CLEAR OF THE MYTHICAL DRAGON'S TRAP

SANDIP GHOSE
Current affairs commentator

That China would be a thorn in his prime ministerial chair was clear to Narendra Modi even as he moved into his office on Raisina Hill. Modi came to power with very definitive ideas on foreign policy and carving a role for himself on the global stage. He knew that building bridges with the West, who are fair-weather friends and have no abiding loyalties to anyone but their own, was going to be a matter of form. But China will resent India coming into the limelight and, therefore, try to thwart India's economic and geopolitical ambitions at every step.

That, perhaps, explains Modi's apparently counterintuitive move of laying out the red carpet for Xi Jinping within months of becoming prime minister. It may have also influenced his choice of Dr S Jaishankar, former ambassador and old China hand, as foreign secretary (and later, as external affairs minister). He followed it through with his trip the very next year when he visited Xi's hometown Xi'an before going to Beijing for their official talks, just as Xi had done by going to Ahmedabad in 2014. Then there was the high-on-optics informal summit in 2019 at Mamallapuram, near Chennai, after Modi returned to power for his second term. Those who thought Narendra Modi was being naïve in making overtures to an untrustworthy neighbour were mistaken. In fact, on the contrary, Narendra Modi was setting the terms of engagement as equal.

Flexing muscles is an old habit of China. Not for nothing, it has the largest army in the world, estimated to be around two million active personnel at the last count. Keeping them mentally engaged is a task for any leader. But that's not the only reason it habitually tries to push its foot soldiers and fleets to test territorial boundaries over land and sea. It is a not-so-subtle assertion of its military might about which no one has any illusions in any case. With India, the rivalry goes beyond geopolitical considerations. It also has socio-cultural and religious overtones that go back centuries. It has been exacerbated by India's entanglement with Tibet and the Dalai Lama. Therefore, those living in diplomatic la-la land can think that China would not react to India's rise.

As long as India was an economic lightweight compared to its growing commercial might, China could adopt a policy of benign disdain. Its only concern was to ensure India did not go out of line. Its aggression in 1962 was primarily to show India its place in the global order. But the attitude began to change as India started becoming a credible investment destination for western companies wanting to look beyond China for sourcing and manufacturing. As India developed more financial elbow room, it could plough back funds for its defence budget and open the purse strings for economic diplomacy with friendly neighbours like Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Maldives and even Afghanistan. This could not have pleased China just as it was smarting from

> Any big power would like to be surrounded by vassal states who survive on its largesse. Such an arrangement could suit Pakistan but not the new India that justly believes its time has come and legitimately aspires to make this an "India Century"

India's rising stature within G20, the emergence of QUAD, and gentle forays to inveigle its way into the UN Security Council.

Any bigpower would like to be surrounded by vassal states who survive on its largesse. Such an arrangement could suit Pakistan but not the new India that justly believes its time has come and legitimately aspires to make this an "India Century". Thus, in announcing India's "arrival", Narendra Modi would have factored in both an economic and military pushback from China.

Therefore, upping the ante would have to be done in a calibrated manner—which might, at times, mean two steps forward and one step back. But not making progress in fear of annoying the mythical dragon across the Himalayas was no longer an option. The developments in the India-China relationship over the last eight years have to be viewed against this backdrop.

India's response to Chinese brinkmanship has to be economic and diplomatic. It cannot be military action. While India most certainly has to raise its defence preparedness, the costs of even a limited arms conflict can be crippling. China, too, understands that. In its measured misadventures in Doklam, Galwan and now, Arunachal, it has tasted India's ability to retaliate, for it not to attempt a 1962 redux.

However, an unexpected development has been the reported unrest within China against the Xi Jinping regime following the return of the Covid crisis. A school of experts believe problems at home prompted Putin's incursion into Ukraine. It is, therefore, suggested that a beleaguered Xi may consider similar diversionary tactics by opening a front with India. But Xi is facing both a political and humanitarian emergency. A war can, in fact, end up distracting the army whose help he will certainly need to quell any rebellion. Losing the support of the army is something he can ill-afford at this juncture.

Similarly, talks of an economic boycott are misguided. While India can certainly cut down on some non-essential imports, it is hugely dependent on China for a host of intermediate goods, for example, in export-oriented industries like pharmaceuticals and chemicals, which cannot be replaced without jeopardising the economy. On the contrary, being a major trading partner works as a form of insurance, as China would think twice before spoiling a captive market, especially when it is facing a downturn.

Therefore, in the short-term, India will have to tackle China diplomatically. India's war strategies cannot be discussed on public platforms. It is well-known that one of the strategies China uses successfully against democratic countries is taking advantage of their free-speech ecosystem to divide national consensus. The opposition should not walk into that same trap in their temptation to corner the government.

K'taka-Maha ugly battle

It is disgusting to note that the border dispute between Karnataka and Maharashtra has been compared with Chinese occupation. What petty politics! Desperate outbursts from Sanjay Raut can be expected as he wants to prove the relevance of the beleaguered Uddhav faction of Shiv Sena.

BF.7 waltzes into India

The coronavirus variant BF.7 is on the rise in China. Some BF.7 cases have been detected in India too. In order to stop the spread, all citizens should strictly follow Covid-appropriate behavior. There should not be politicisation of this serious matter.

Keeping BF.7 at bay

With the entry of BF.7 in India, the government should stop all international flights, especially to and from those countries where cases of this new variant are surging. The nation has faced enough damage in the first, second and third wave, so the country needs to be alert and not make the same mistake again and again.

Draconian Taliban

Taliban's recent actions impeding Afghan women's access to education, something which is a basic right, is condemnable. India, as well as the international community, must ramp up pressure on the Taliban. Steps to make them abide by the international rules ought to be taken. If apathy persists, it will ultimately be the innocent Afghan people, especially the women, who will bear the brunt of this situation.

India skips UNSC vote on release of Suu Kyi & others

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

INDIA has abstained in the UN Security Council on a draft resolution that demanded an immediate end to violence in Myanmar and urged the military junta to release political prisoners, including ousted State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi.

The 15-nation Security Council, under India's presidency this month, adopted the resolution after 12 members voted in favour, none against and India, China and Russia abstained.

This is the first Security Council resolution adopted on Myanmar in 74 years. The only other UNSC resolution on Myanmar was in 1948 after the country formerly known as Burma got independence from Britain when the Council recommended to the General Assembly "that the Union of Burma" be admitted to membership in the UN. "The complex situation in Myanmar calls for an approach of quiet and patient diplomacy," said India's Permanent Representative to the UN, Ambassador Ruchira Kamboj.

Kamboj said that any other course will not help in resolving the long-standing issues which have prevented enduring peace, stability, progress and democratic governance.

"Under the current circumstances, we are of the considered view that a UN Security Council resolution may entrench the parties in their inflexible positions rather than encourage them to pursue an inclusive political dialogues," said Kamboj. However, India asserted that it calls upon all parties for an immediate cessation of hostilities, abandon their extreme positions and immediately initiate an inclusive political dialogue for the restoration of democracy and release of political leaders. India underlined that the UN system should assist the parties in dialogue so that the state of emergency comes to an end and Myanmar returns to the democratic path.

> Under the current circumstances, we are of the considered view that a UN Security Council resolution may entrench the parties in their inflexible positions rather than encourage them to pursue an inclusive political dialogues
>

"It is therefore important to carefully weigh actions by this Council. Quiet and constructive diplomacy is the desirable recourse to seeking constructive and enduring solutions in Myanmar," Kamboj said.

Sonia's remark on judiciary inappropriate: V-P

'Comment reflects lack of faith in democracy, high constitutional offices should not be subjected to partisan instances'

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar conducts proceedings in the House | PTI

CALLING Congress Parliamentary Party Chaiperson Sonia Gandhi's remark that government is seeking to "deligitimise the judiciary" as "inappropriate", Vice President Jagdeep Dhankar on Thursday urged the leaders to not subject high constitutional offices to partisan instances.

"The observations are severely inappropriate, indicating a lack of faith in democracy, making this exceptional response unavoidable. The statement imparted by the Hon'ble chairperson of the UPA is far distanced from my reflections. Delegitimising the judiciary is beyond my contemplation. It is a pillar of democracy. I would urge and expect leaders across the political spectrum to bear in mind not to subject high constitutional offices to partisan stances," Dhankhar said in Rajya Sabha.

Slamming BJP government, CPP Chairperson yesterday had said that there was a troubling new development which was a calculated attempt to delegitimise the judiciary. "A troubling new development is the calculated attempt underway to delegitimize the judiciary. Ministers — and even a high constitutional authority -- have been enlisted to making speeches attacking the judiciary on various grounds. It is quite clear that this is not an effort to provide reasonable suggestions for improvement. Rather, it is an effort to reduce the standing of the judiciary in the eyes of the public," she had said.

Responding to Gandhi's remark, Union Law Minister Kiren Rijiju had said that there is no conflict between the government and judiciary and that it is the Congress that wants to politicise the issue.

"There is no conflict between the government and judiciary. Judiciary is being attacked by leaders belonging to Congress. Kapil Sibal had said that he has lost faith in the SC of India. We don't use such comments. We respect judiciary and we can only improve delivery of justice in coordination with the judiciary. If I put forth some issues then they are in response to the answers. Its my duty to answer the questions posed to me in the Parliament and this is not an attack on the judiciary" the minister had said.

Going ballistic against the Congress and Opposition, Union Parliamentary Minister Pralhad Joshi lambasted the Opposition, led by Congress Party in particular, for creating pandemonium in the Upper House after the Chair of House did not allow a discussion on the recent skirmishes between Indian and Chinese soldiers along the LAC in Tawang sector of Arunachal Pradesh. "The Opposition and the Congress in particular should follow the decorum of the House," he said.

Goyal withdraws Bihar remark after RJD, JD-U protest in Parliament

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

AMID mounting protests from the members of Opposition parties, including the RJD and the JD(U), Union minister and Leader of the House in Raya Sabha Piyush Goyal had to withdraw his objectionable remark made about Bihar on Thursday. To begin with, the members of almost all Opposition parties, led by RJD and JD-U, walked out from the RS demanding discussion over the Chinese transgression along the LAC in Twang and apology from Goyal soon after the session initiated.

WINTER SESSION

Protesting against Goyal's remark on Bihar given on Tuesday in the RS, the Opposition members carrying placards continued protesting near the statue of Mahatma Gandhi in the premises of Parliament for hours.

Later, seeing the protest getting a political colour against the BJP, Goyal withdrew his remark stating that he had no intention to insult Bihar.

Goyal had remarked to RJD leader Manoj Jha that his party would one day turn the entire "country into Bihar" if they have their way.

RJD MP in RS Manoj Kumar Jha had on Wednesday also written a letter to Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar about the minister's "demeaning" remark, demanding an apology from the BJP leader.

Goyal said that he had withdrawn immediately his statement if it hurt anybody.

"At the outset, let me clarify that there is absolutely no intention of insulting either Bihar or the people of Bihar. And if at all it has hurt anybody, I immediately withdraw that statement. It was not made with any malice to anybody at all," Goyal said.

He had said on Tuesday when Jha was speaking during a discussion on the Appropriation Bill seeking Parliament's nod for additional spending. Goyal had said that "inka bas chale to desh ko Bihar bana dein' (If they have their way, they will turn the entire country into Bihar). That statement of Goyal on Bihar had irked not only the members of RJD, JDU but also members of many other Opposition parties like Shivsena Thacakery fraction) and others. Taking serious note of Goyal's remark, Jha said that 'an insult to Bihar is an insult to the entire country' and threatened to launch an agitation against the minister if he failed to apologise.

Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge also joined the chorus of protest started by Jha in demanding an apology from Goyal.

Light tanks are supposed to be easier to move around than regular tanks, and they are often used in mountain warfare.

Under Project Zorawar, light tanks will be made that weigh less than 25 tonnes and have a high power-to-weight ratio.

IAF needs fighters to retain combat edge: Chief

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

INDIAN Air Force Chief Air Chief Marshal VR Chaudhari on Thursday impressed upon the "critical deficiencies" of the force which needs to be addressed to retain the combat edge. His statement holds significance as the force is grappling with dwindled combat fighters and the associated force multipliers.

The Air Chief also touched upon the "great power politics in play" in the Indo-Pacific region and stated that this will have its repercussions. He said, "There are certain critical deficiencies like shortage of fighter squadrons and force multipliers which must be addressed on priority to retain our combat edge."

The IAF operates nearly 30 Combat Squadrons in place of the sanctioned 42 Combat squadrons.

From an airpower perspective, IAF will be expected to contribute across the full spectrum of conflict. Airpower has the capability to deter, defend and if required punish the adversary in a conflict, added. Govt to vaccinate 9 to 14-year-old schoolgirls against cervical cancer

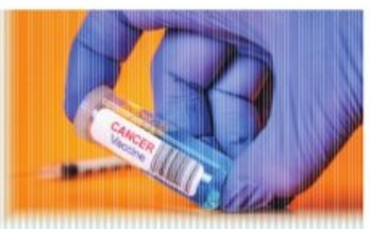
KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

UNIVERSAL IMMUNISATION PROGRAMME



- 9 and 14 years-old girls will be vaccinated through schools
- States and UTs asked to start collating the number of girls in Class 5 to 10 in each district
- Cervical cancer is the fourth most common cancer in women
- In India, cervical cancer is the second most common cancer in women
- States and union territories to create awareness of the prevention of cervical cancer

THE Centre will be providing cervical cancer vaccine for girls aged between 9 and 14 years through schools and has asked states and union territories to start collating the number of girls enrolled in classes 5 to 10 in each district.

India is all set to launch next year its first indigenously developed Human Papilloma Virus(HPV) vaccine to prevent cervical cancer. The National Technical Advisory Group for Immunization (NTAGI) has recommended introducing HPV Vaccine in the Universal Immunization Programme (UIP) with a one-time catch-up for 9-14-year-old adolescent girls followed by routine introduction at nine years. In a joint letter, the Union Education Secretary Sanjay Kumar and Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan highlighted that globally, cervical cancer is the fourth most common cancer in women.

In India, cervical cancer is the second most common cancer in women, and India contributes to the most significant proportion of the global cervical cancer burden.

The Education Ministry, in a statement, said that for girls who are unable to attend school on the campaign day, the vaccination would be provided at a health facility. In contrast, for out-of-school girls, the campaign would be conducted through Community Outreach and Mobile teams. For registration, recording and reporting of vaccination numbers, the U-WIN App would be used.

The Centre also directed the states and union territories to create awareness of the prevention of cervical cancer and the importance of the HPV vaccine among girl students across the country.

Cervical cancer is preventable and curable if detected early and managed effectively. Most cervical cancers are associated with the Human Papilloma Virus (HPV). The HPV vaccine can prevent most cases of cervical cancer if the vaccine is given before girls or women are exposed to the virus.

In the letter, states were asked to organise HPV vaccination centres in schools for vaccination; to direct District Education Officer to support District Immunisation Officer and be part of the efforts of District Task Force on Immunization (DTFI) under the District Magistrate and to coordinate with government school and private school management board in the district.

The centre also asked the states to identify a nodal person in each school to coordinate vaccination activities and collate the number of 9-14 years of girls in the school and bulk upload the same in U-WIN.

Stress was also given to generate awareness through school teachers to all parents during Special Parents-Teachers Meetings (PTAs).

"Supporting in generating an up-to-date list of all types of school (UDISE+) in each block for micro-planning and access to GIS mapping of schools to districts immunisation officers for developing micro-plans so that none of the school is missed during the vaccination drive," the ministry said.

THIS DEVICE CAN HARNESS ENERGY FROM A LIGHT BREEZE

Scientists from Nanyang Technological University, Singapore (NTU Singapore) have developed a low-cost device that can harness energy from a gentle, light breeze and store it as electricity. When exposed to winds with a velocity as low as less than two metres per second (m/s), the device can produce a voltage of three volts and generate electricity power of up to 290 microwatts, which is sufficient to power a commercial sensor device and for it to also send the data to a mobile phone or a computer.

ROADSIDE VEGETATION TO IMPROVE URBAN AIR, REDUCE FLOODING

Rampant concretisation has exposed the roots of roadside trees making them more vulnerable during the monsoon | VINOD KUMAR T.

University of Texas at Arlington is on a project that holds much promise for Indian cities, too. A UTA research team is involved in developing a set of best practices and evaluating the importance of growing vegetation on either sides of roads and highways with an eye on improving air quality and reducing flooding or waterlogging during heavy rains. The benefits also include benefits include reduced roadside maintenance, reduced urban heat island effect, while improving ground water quality, resiliency, safety, aesthetics, pedestrian space and carbon sequestration. The project focusses on evaluating various types of landscape and vegetation installations along roadsides. The results will help measure the tangible benefits of roadside vegetation and landscape development and improve sustainability along the roadways.

A 'GEL SHEET' MOP THAT CLEANS UP IN A JIFFY, WITHOUT DRIPPING

Researchers from University of Maryland have designed and developed a gel-based mop that can absorb and hold three times more spilled water-based liquids, without dripping even a single drop, which can revolutionise the way we keep our kitchens, dining rooms and our environments cleaner, that too quicker. The study, published in the journal Matter, presented an absorbent, foldable, and cuttable "gel sheet" that may one day also find potential in operating rooms to soak up liquids, including blood during surgeries. To craft the gel sheets, the research team first mixed acid, base, and other ingredients for the hydrogel in a zip-top bag. Like vinegar meeting baking soda, the mixture released carbon dioxide bubbles within the gel, creating a porous and foam-like material. Next, the zip-top bag was sandwiched between glass slabs to form a sheet and then exposed to UV light, which sets the liquid around the bubbles, leaving pores behind. Lastly, the team dipped the set sheet in alcohol and glycerol and air-dried it.

Govt suppressing our voice, trying to block Yatra: Rahul

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

ON the second day of his Bharat Jodo Yatra on Thursday, Rahul Gandhi accused the Centre of trying to suppress the voice of Congress leaders in Parliament, asserting that it was for the reason that the party had organized such a Yatra.

Rahul said the government was coming up with "excuses" to stop the Yatra, days after Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya wrote to him saying the march should be suspended if Covid protocols could not be followed. The Yatra, which started from Kanyakumari on September 7, has covered Tamil Nadu, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, Karnataka, Telangana, Maharashtra, Madhya Pradesh, and Rajasthan.

"This Yatra will go to Kashmir. Now, they have come out with a new idea. They wrote me a letter that Covid was spreading, stop the Yatra," Rahul said while addressing a gathering in Ghasera village in Haryana's Nuh district. The Bharat Jodo Yatra led by him entered the state through Nuh on Wednesday after its Rajasthan leg.

"In Parliament when we talk on issues related to Rafale, GST, etc the microphone is turned off and no one can hear us. They pan the camera to the Speaker and keep it stationed there for as long as our leaders are speaking. They do not want to hear us in Parliament. That's why we took to the streets to ensure real stakeholders hear us out. During the time of Gandhi (Mahatama) too, people tried to create divisions and sow the seeds of hatred. He was most fearless. I want to tell you that do not be afraid,'' said the Congress leader.

"The RSS spreads hatred, but they are afraid of farmers, labourers. The Yatra has shown that the nation is not afraid. The day the nation stands united, all this hatred will disappear. That day is not far,'' he added. Promising better roads, health facilities, and educational institutions if Congress returned to power, Rahul said, "We have been walking on these roads. It is clear to me that the people of Mewat want better roads, schools, colleges, educational institutions, and access to better medical facilities and water supply. When our government is in power, I ensure you that we will complete these works. It will take time, but our intentions are clear."

Taking a dig at the media, he said even it was being remote-controlled. "We have walked miles for peace but they do not have space for us. But if Modiji walks even 15 steps, they will harp on it for 24 hours,'' he said.

Ghasera village is also known as Gandhi Gram as the Mahatma visited the village on December 19, 1947, to convince members of the Muslim community from Alwar and Bharatpur in Rajasthan who had halted on their way to Pakistan to remain in their homeland.

Understand the chronology, we won't stop Yatra: Congress

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi/ Lucknow

THE political heat over the new Covid-19 variant escalated on Thursday as Congress and Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) locked horns over Union Health Minister Mansukh Mandaviya's letter to Rahul Gandhi to suspend Bharat Jodo Yatra.

Flaying the government for its delayed response, AICC General secretary Jairam Ramesh said that four cases of Omicron sub-variant BF.7, driving Chinese surge were reported in Gujarat and Odisha in July, September, and November. However, the health minister wrote a letter to Rahul Gandhi on Wednesday and the PM is reviewing the situation now. "Bharat Jodo Yatra will enter Delhi on Saturday. Understand the chronology," he said.

Senior leader Salman Kurshid, the Yatra's coordination committee chairman in Uttar Pradesh, said that the Yatra will not be stopped."The Congress will follow all Covid-related guidelines, but Yatra will not be stopped," he said. "Government is scared of Congress," he said. PM Modi chaired a high-level meeting on Thursday to review the Covid-19 preparedness in the country.

Regularise staff who worked for 10 yrs: J'khand HC

Orders state govt to regularise contractual staff who have worked for more than 10 yrs

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

IN a major relief to contractual workers, the Jharkhand High Court on Thursday ordered the state government to regularize all those workers who are engaged on contractual basis for more than 10 years.

In the light of the Supreme Court order in Uma Devi case, the court of Justice SN Pathak said the state government should make regular appointments of contractual workers.

The decision was given by the court while hearing a writ petition filed by a transport department employee Narendra Tiwari, who had moved the SC after the Jharkhand HC rejected his plea to regularize his services in 2017. The SC directed the HC to reconsider the case, following which a petition was filed again in the HC in 2018.

"Giving final judgment in the writ petition, the court said that since they have been working for more than 10 years, the state government will have to regularize their services following the Supreme Court ruling in the Uma Devi case," said petitioner's advocate Vipula Poddar, who was assisting senior advocate Indrajeet Sinha in the case. Saying, "Enough is enough," the court also directed the state government to ensure that all future appointments are done on a regular basis and that those who are already engaged, their services should be regularized immediately.

Most contractual workers are computer operators engaged in the transport and other departments. The Supreme Court has reiterated that regularization shall be given effect to by the courts only in those cases where the part-time workers have been appointed irregularly against a sanctioned post, and the courts shall be unjustified in directing the state to create posts for the purpose of regularization.

Gadkari all praise for Cong CM's green efforts

Union minister of Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari asppreciated on CM Bhupesh Baghel for his directive to strictly ensure using the cow-dung based natural paints for government buildings/offices in all departments. The first of its kind paint with anti-fungal properties was launched by Gadkari in January 2021. The admiration came from the senior BJP leader at a time when the saffron party is struggling to give a fillip to the party's political fortunes against the Baghel government. The Congress has maintained its winning streak in all five Assembly by-polls since December 2018.

Balco takes a step to reduce carbon footprint

Greater focus to find alternative and renewable fuel resources remains the need of the hour. A trial run in the Korba-based Bharat Aluminium Company Limited (Balco) using biodiesel in smelter operations and as a fuel for technological vehicles in transportation has been successfull. Biodiesel is a form of fuel derived from organic matter which, when burned, produces significantly lower greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions compared to conventional, non-renewable fuels, besides aiding farmers' income. With robust initiative, Balco aims towards reducing GHG emissions and enhancing energy savings.

Dharmadrohi v/s Deshdrohi certificates!

While opposition BJP cited that Bhupesh Baghel has apparently hurt the sentiments of Hindus over his remark on 'saffron' and 'Bajrangi goonde' (goons) when the CM questioned how can colour (of clothes) decide faith and caste, asserting that saffron symbolises 'renunciation and sacrifice'. Baghel on BJP's criticism countered yet again asking on why when one talks against the BJP the person is dubbed as 'dharmdrohi' (anti-religion) or anyone speaks against the Centre then he is labeled as 'deshdrohi' (anti-national) and if any individual daring to speak against them is called as 'demon'. CM felt that the BJP instead of replying gave his certificates.

After poll defeat, pressure mounts within Gujarat Cong for state chief's exit

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

DAYS after suffering its biggest loss in the Assembly elections in Gujarat, more than 16 defeated candidates of the state Congress have demanded the resignation of state party chief Jagdish Thakor. In a meeting held for the party's 'Pad Yatra', many senior Congress leaders said they would work for the party only after the resignation of the state president.

> More than 15 former MLAs have demanded state party chief's exit. They said the top state leadership should take the responsibility for the party's abject defeat
>
> HASMUKH DESAI, Surat Cong chief

The state party leaders will meet Congress chief Mallikarjun Kharge in Delhi on Friday and hand him their report listing the reasons for the party's abysmal show in the Assembly polls. Sources say Thakor will also submit his resignation to the party high command on the same day.

In a meeting called by Thakor on Wednesday, the party leaders expressed their frustration over a series of defeats in the elections. The meeting was called to chalk out the party's 'Pada Yatra', which it plans to launch in February, covering all Assembly seats and talukas. However, the outbursts of some leaders derailed the agenda.

During the meeting, more than 16 MLAs and district and city party presidents expressed their anger against top party functionaries, especially Thakor. Surat Congress chief Hasmukh Desai Told TNIE: "More than 15 former MLAs including Randhnpur's Raghu Desai demanded the resignation of the state party chief and other senior leaders. They also said that they should take the responsibility for the defeat and resign." Many leaders alleged that election funds were not distributed equally by the state leadership.

Shinde does a U-turn, cancels Nagpur land deal

SUDHIR SURYAWANSH @ Mumbai

THE Eknath Shinde government has informed the Nagpur bench of the Bombay High Court that it has cancelled the allocation of five acres of Nagpur Improvement Trust (NIT) land to 17 Nagpur-based developers. In its report, the chief minister has clarified that he was not unaware about the land until December 14.

"However, after the court observations in the NIT land, I was briefed about it on December 14. We have decided to withdraw the decision that facilitated land allocation to 16 developers. The court can now take further action on the basis of the submitted report," said the chief minister's response submitted in the court.

It was alleged that the five acres of NIT plot were illegally allocated to 16 Nagpur-based developers at throwaway prices – ₹2 crore against the actual market price of ₹100 crore. Shinde was the urban development minister in the Uddhav Thackeray government.

The opposition has alleged he had ignored the court stay order on the land allocation. NCP MLA and former minister Jitendra Ahwad raised an uproar in the state assembly over the issue and demanded Shinde's resignation. The CM's decision cancelling the land allocation came following the move to allow five acres of NIT plot to developers.

"The NIT land scam shows that the CM was involved in it when he was urban development minister. After the scam surfaced, Shinde cancelled the allocation and briefed the court that he was not aware that the matter was sub judice to save himself," said the NCP leader.

"Shinde cannot escape from the responsibility and try to cover up the matter. But the people of Maharashtra know the truth that CM Shinde was involved in the land scam," NCP leader said.

Interestingly, Maharashtra BJP chief and MLC Chandrashekhar Bawankule joined the chorus of Maha Vikas Aghadi and demanded a probe into the NIT land allocation. Earlier, Shiv Sena leader Uddhav Thackeray demanded resignation of Shinde over the NIT land scam. Thackeray said that for a fair probe of the matter, Shinde should step down as the CM.

Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis on Thursday said in the Assembly the Opposition has "fallen flat on its face" in the Nagpur land allotment case after the Bombay High Court observed it had taken note of Chief Minister Eknath Shinde withdrawing a 2021 regularisation order linked to the land allocation and closed the issue.

Fadnavis, who also holds the Home portfolio, maintained there was no "scam" in the land allotment matter as alleged by the Opposition.

'Considering the fact that now the order of regularisation has been withdrawn by the Chief Minister as per his order dated 16-12-2022, we are of the view that the purpose of the order dated 14-12-2022 passed by this Court has been served and now this issue is close,' the HC observed on Thursday.

The court also observed that as regards the issue of regularisation, the state government would be at liberty to decide the same in accordance with the law depending upon the final outcome of the petition (related to the Nagpur land allotment case).

SIT to probe Sushant manager's death

Maharashtra CM Devendra Fadnavis on Thursday ordered setting up the SIT to probe the death of Disha Salian, manager of Sushant Singh Rajput. The ruling party mainly BJP MLA Nilesh Rane alleged that Disha Salian death was not a suicide, she was killed. BJP MLAs made allegations that Aditya Thackeray was present at the party at Disha Salian when she committed the suicide. They alleged Thackeray was responsible for her death. The SIT should be formed for the proper investigations of this case.

HC rejects Vadra's plea against ED case

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

IN a setback to businessman Robert Vadra, the husband of Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, a single-judge bench of the Rajasthan High Court on Thursday rejected his plea seeking a stay on his custodial interrogation in an Enforcement Directorate case into the dubious land deals in Bikaner by a company linked to him and his mother.

Justice P S Bhati also rejected Vadra's plea for quashing the ED probe but extended an earlier stay on his arrest by two more weeks, to allow the petitioner to appeal before a two-judge bench.

Vadra is the son-in-law of Congress leader Sonia Gandhi and faces investigation over the purchase of land by Sky Light Hospitality, a partnership firm with his mother Maureen.

The ED had filed an enforcement case information report (ECIR, a document prepared by the ED when it begins an investigation) in 2015 based on a complaint by a local tehsildar regarding the purchase of 275 bighas of land in Kolayat area of Bikaner.

The land was bought in 2012 and the payment was allegedly made through conduits. The land was later sold at a huge profit, allegedly using forged documents.

The Vadras moved the HC after the ED summoned them.

Cash-strapped Bengal eyes unutilised ₹2,500 crore lying with state coffers

PRONAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

Breakup of unutilised funds

DISTRICTS	SANCTIONED SUM	UNUTILISED SUM
Murshidabad	₹376.08 crore	₹162.72 crore
North 24-Parganas	₹294.91 crore	₹139.89 crore
South 24-Parganas	₹415.51 crore	₹138.75 crore
West Midnapore	₹257.29 crore	₹120.47 crore
Nadia	₹252.69 crore	₹111.44 crore

AT a time when the cash-strapped West Bengal government is accusing the Centre of not releasing the state's dues, a grant of around ₹2,500 crore of 15th finance commission is lying unutilised in districts. Chief Secretary HK Dwivedi has convened an emergency meeting on January 2 to seek explanation why the money, which was supposed to be spent through panchayat systems, is still lying unutilised even as the next panchayat election is approaching.

In several districts the volume of unutilised sum is nearly 50 per cent of the total grant. Based on the recommendations of the commission - on the basis of population, districts are granted the fund by the Centre. The grant is divided into two categories - tied and untied. Under the tied category, 60 per cent of the grant is to be spent on the specific projects chalked out by the panchayats like drinking water and sanitation schemes. Rest 40 per cent is is under panchayats' liberty to use it for development projects. The rural bodies have to submit proposals related to infrastructure development and other works related to collective developments. This fund cannot be spent for salaries, transport or administrative expenditure. Eyeing the upcoming panchayat elections, Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee issued directives to complete the unfinished projects on war footing measure. She, on several occasion, also accused the Centre for not releasing funds under MGNREGA which resulted economic hardship among the people of rural Bengal. "If we fail to spend the fund granted by the Centre, next year the volume of the grant will be less," said an official.

Kashmiri Pandit staffers hit out at L-G's 'no salary if sitting at home' remark

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

ANGERED by the Lt Governor Manoj Sinha's 'no salary if sitting at home' remark, the PM package Pandit employees for the second day protested in Jammu. They asserted that they won't rejoin their duties in militancy-hit Valley till the situation improves there "as life is more precious than salary". Rubon Saproo president of All Migrant Displaced Employees Association Kashmir told this newspaper that all the PM package employees and Pandits have been angered by the L-G's remarks.

Sinha while addressing mediapersons in Jammu on Wednesday asserted that salaries will not be provided to those sitting at home, "It is a clear and loud message and everybody should listen and understand it". "We were expecting relief from Lt Governor but he has hurt us," he said. On LG's statement that PM package Pandit employees had sought some breathing period after the killing of a Pandit employee by militants on May 12, Saproo said, "We never sought breathing period. During our meeting with Lt Governor, we had clearly told him that our lives were under threat and demanded temporary relocation to Jammu". The PM package Pandit employees staged a protest for the second day in Jammu today against Lt Governor's remarks.

"The protests have intensified. There is no dilution in our demand - relocation to Jammu in view of security concerns in Valley. The administration should seriously think about the security of PM package employees and cosmetic therapies won't work," Saproo said.

He said the reality is that PM package Pandit employees don't feel safe in the Valley and seek relocation to Jammu.

Japan plans to boost nuke energy, aims to build new reactors

TOKYO

JAPAN adopted a plan on Thursday to extend the lifespan of nuclear reactors, replace the old and even build new ones, a major shift in a country scarred by the Fukushima disaster that once planned to phase out atomic power.

Under the new policy, Japan will maximise the use of existing reactors by restarting as many of them as possible and prolonging the operating life of aging ones beyond a 60-year limit. The government also pledged to develop next-generation reactors.

In 2011, a powerful earthquake and the ensuing tsunami caused multiple meltdowns at the Fukushima Daiichi plant—a disaster that supercharged anti-nuclear sentiment in Japan and at one point led the government to promise to phase out the energy by around 2030. But since then, the government has recommitted to the technology, including setting a target for nuclear to make up 20-22% of the country's energy mix by the end of the decade.

Still, restart approvals for idled nuclear reactors have come slowly since the Fukushima disaster, which led to stricter safety standards. Utility firms have applied for restarts at 27 reactors in the past decade. 17 have passed the safety checks and only 10 have resumed operation.

According to the paper laying out the new policy, nuclear power serves "an important role as a carbon-free baseload energy source in achieving supply stability and carbon neutrality" and pledged to "sustain use of nuclear power into the future." PM Fumio Kishida said he planned to get the Cabinet to approve the policy and submit the necessary bills to Parliament.

The Economy and Industry Ministry has drafted a plan to allow extensions every 10 years for reactors after 30 years of operation while also permitting utilities to subtract offline periods in calculating reactors' operational life. AP

Zelenskyy proposes peace formula to Biden

Ukrainian prez says discussions depends on Russia's willingness to negotiate, condemn Putin

WASHINGTON

UKRAINIAN President Volodymyr Zelenskyy told the US Congress that he proposed a 10-point 'peace formula' during his meeting with President Joe Biden, which he hoped would result in joint security guarantees for decades ahead.

Zelenskyy, 44, met President Biden in the Oval Office and jointly addressed a press conference at the White House on Wednesday. He was given the rare distinction of addressing a joint session of the US Congress on a day packed with back-to-back meetings.

"We need peace. Ukraine has already offered proposals, which I just discussed with President Biden, our peace formula, ten points which should and must be implemented for our joint security guarantees for decades ahead. And the summit, which can be held," Zelenskyy said.

He said that any such discussions would also depend on Russia's willingness to negotiate and the participation of the international legal order, even as he slammed Russian President Vladimir Putin for invading Ukraine.

"It would be naive to wait for steps towards peace from Russia which enjoys being a terrorist state. Russians are still poisoned by the Kremlin. The restriction of international legal order is our joint task," Zelenskyy noted.

Zelenskyy expressed hope that Congress would pass the extra $45 billion in aid to Ukraine to "help us to defend our values, values and independence".

Meanwhile, Ukrainians welcomed Zelenskyy back from a wartime visit to the United States, hailing his trip as successful whereas Russian officials said on Thursday that the visit only fuelled the conflict.

Russia accused Ukraine and the US of turning a deaf ear to its concerns.

"We can say with regret that so far, neither President Biden nor President Zelensky have said even a few words that could be perceived as potential readiness to listen to Russia's concerns," Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov told reporters.

Officials in Moscow over recent months have repeatedly said they have not ruled out talks with Ukraine. They have blamed the closure of diplomatic channels on Zelenskyy, who has said he will not negotiate while President Vladimir Putin is in power.

"Not a single word was heard warning Zelenskyy against the continued shelling of residential buildings in towns and villages in Donbas and there were no real calls for peace," Peskov said. "This suggests that the United States is continuing its line of de facto fighting an indirect war with Russia to the last Ukrainian," he added. Agencies

Russia's sole aircraft carrier catches fire

Moscow: A fire broke out onboard Russia's sole aircraft carrier on Thursday, Russian state media reported. The Admiral Kuznetsov, a flagship of the Russian Navy, suffered a 'minor' fire while undergoing repair work at a shipyard in the Arctic port of Murmansk.

IAEA talks nuke plant safety with Kremlin

KYIV

THE head of the UN nuclear watchdog met Thursday in Moscow with officials from Russia's military and state atomic energy company as he pursues a long-running drive to set up a protection zone around a Russian-occupied nuclear power plant in Ukraine.

Russian company Rosatom described the talks on measures needed to safeguard Ukraine's Zaporizhzhia nuclear power plant and the surrounding region as "substantive, useful and frank." International Atomic Energy Agency Director General Rafael Grossi indicated that more negotiations were needed after "another round of necessary discussions."

"It's key that the zone focuses solely on preventing a nuclear accident," he tweeted. "I am continuing my efforts towards this goal with a sense of utmost urgency." The IAEA's Grossi has urged Russia and Ukraine for over three months to agree on a safety zone around Europe's largest nuclear power station. Zaporizhizia province and areas across the Dnieper River from the nuclear power plant have been under regular shelling since Russia invaded Ukraine on February 24. Also, the Russian military on Thursday reported that Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu paid a visit to Russian troops on the front line what the Kremlin calls its "special military operation" in Ukraine. The exact location of the visit was not disclosed.

A video released by the Russian Defense Ministry showed Shoigu inspecting temporary troop quarters in dugouts and talking to military commanders. AP

Chinese threat: Philippines boosts army in sea

MANILA

THE Philippines ordered its military to boost their presence in the South China Sea on Thursday, citing a 'threat' to a garrison in the disputed waterway after Chinese 'activities'.

It comes two days after media reported that Beijing has begun reclaiming more land in the contested Spratly Islands, a major archipelago in the South China Sea. "Any encroachment in the West Philippine Sea or reclamation on the features therein is a threat to the security of Pagasa Island," the Philippine defence department said. Manila refers to the waters immediately west of the Philippines as the West Philippine Sea, while Pagasa Island, the second biggest in the Spratlys, also known as Thitu Island.

The defence department said it had directed the armed forces "to strengthen the country's presence in the West Philippine Sea, following the monitored Chinese activities close to Pagasa Island".

The agency did not specify the nature of the "monitored Chinese activities", but the Philippine military said its air and naval patrols had observed "China militia vessels."

A Philippine military statement said its regular air and naval patrols have "observed the persistent presence of China militia vessels around areas stated in the Bloomberg article."

The statement did not say if the patrols monitored the reclamations themselves. AFP

MARKET FALLS OVER INFLATION, COVID FEARS

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

DESPITE positive global cues, equity market extended its losing streak for the third straight session on Thursday, with the BSE benchmark Sensex erasing the 61,000 mark and NSE Nifty50 sliding below the 18,150 levels.

On account of growing inflation and Covid fears, Sensex fell 241.02 points or 0.39% to end at 60,826.22, while Nifty 50 dipped 71.75 points or 0.39% to shut shop at 18,127.35 on Thursday. BSE listed companies erased market cap of nearly ₹7 lakh crore in last two days. Auto major Mahindra & Mahindra was top loser on Sensex, falling 2.61%, followed by Bajaj Finserv, IndusInd Bank, Tata Motors, L&T, Tata Steel and Axis Bank. Sectoral indices closed in the red with capital goods, auto, banking, consumer durables, metal, and oil & gas witnessing selloffs. Only tech index managed to end in the green. Vinod Nair, head of research at Geojit Financial, said, "The losses were extended in domestic equities owing to hawkish comments from the RBI's MPC minutes, which suggested that a premature pause in rate tightening would be a "costly policy error at this juncture". Better-than-expected earnings in the US amid recession fears and strong consumer confidence readings lifted global sentiments." Key Asian markets mostly gained on Thursday after inflation concerns in the US eased. On Thursday, US government reported that its economy grew at a strong 3.2% annual pace from July through September, beating estimates. This, as per experts, will lift investors sentiment. Beside being richly valued, India's equity market is also under pressure following another Covid outbreak in China. Indian government has asked people to wear masks and authorities to ramp up testing. "Healthcare, diagnostics and all pharma-linked stocks will be in focus over next few days due to re-emergence of Covid cases in China, which has led to worries elsewhere," said Siddhartha Khemka, head of retail research at Motilal Oswal Financial Services.

16,600 brick and mortar stores Reliance Retail has

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

RELIANCE INDUSTRIES LTD's (RIL) retail arm - Reliance Retail Ventures Limited ('RRVL') - on Thursday signed definitive agreements to acquire 100% equity stake in METRO Cash & Carry India('METRO India') for a total cash consideration of ₹2,850 crore. The transaction is expected to complete by March 2023.

Through this acquisition, Reliance Retail gets access to a wide network of METRO India stores located in prime locations across key cities in the country, a large base of registered kiranas and other institutional customers, strong supplier network and some of the global practices implemented by METRO in India, RIL said in a statement

This big acquisition by India's second-richest billionaire- Mukesh Ambani comes after Reliance's failed attempt to acquire Future Retail, one of country's biggest retailers with massive offline footprint. The Reliance-Future deal, where Reliance would have acquired 19 Future Group companies operating in retail, wholesale, logistic and warehousing segments, was called off by the oil-to-telecom conglomerate in April this year after it failed to get lenders' support.

METRO, the top international retailer, started operations in India in 2003 and currently operates 31 large format stores across 21 cities with about 3,500 employees.

In the financial year 2021/22 (FY ended September 2022), METRO India generated sales of Rs 7700 crore, its best sales performance since its market entry into India.

Reliance, on the other hand, is India's biggest brick-and-mortar retailer with over 16,600 stores. In FY22, RRVL's consolidated turnover was ₹1.99 lakh crore.

Isha Ambani, director at RRVL, said, "We believe METRO India's healthy assets combined with our deep understanding of Indian merchant / kirana ecosystem will help offer a differentiated value proposition to small businesses in India."

Just a week back, Reliance Group had launched its fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) brand "Independence" in Gujarat with plans to expand pan-India.

Reliance's FMCG brand will take on established players such as Hindustan Unilever, ITC, Patanjali and Adani Wilmar.

Performance linked part goes up in Pichai's revised salary

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

GOOGLE'S parent company Alphabet has approved a new pay structure for CEO Sundar Pichai that links a larger chunk of his salary to performance.

The committee of the board of directors of Alphabet has approved a new equity award for Pichai. It has increased the proportion of performance stock units (PSUs) to 60% from 43%, and also increased the performance requirement for on-target PSU payout to 55th percentile from 50th percentile of total shareholder return.

Pichai's last equity award was granted in December 2019. The Leadership Development and Compensation Committee of the Board increased Pichai's salary to $2,000,000 effective January 1, 2020. It also provided equity awards in the form of performance stock units and restricted stock units.

The committee currently follows a triennial grant cycle for CEO equity awards.

"As with the 2019 award, the award consists of both performance-based and time-based equity. The vesting of a significant portion of the award will depend on Alphabet's total shareholder return, and this performance-based equity may not vest at all," Alphabet said in an SEC filing. The committee has recognised Pichai's strong performance as CEO, and it said that the on-target value of the award is unchanged from the 2019 award. Pichai was granted two tranches of PSUs with a target value of $63 million each. The triennial award included a grant of $84 million in the form of Alphabet restricted stock units. Pichai became Google's CEO in 2015. In Q3 2022, the company's revenues were $69.1 billion, up 6% compared to last year.

Aloke Singh to head Air India's low-cost carrier from January 1

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

IN a big managerial change at Tata Group run airlines, Air India Express chief executive officer Aloke Singh will be taking over as the chief of Air India's low-cost airline business from January 1 next year.

The low-cost carrier (LCC) business will comprise AirAsia India, 100% owned by the Tatas, and Air India Express.

"The two constituent airlines will continue to have the full complement of regulatory postholders until the merger is complete but, for now, a single CEO will provide the clarity and singular accountability necessary to navigate the process," Air India CEO and managing director Campbell Wilson said in the internal communication.

Singh will be the sole CEO of Air India LCC airline with effect from January 1, 2023.

The present AirAsia India CEO Sunil Bhaskaran will assume the leadership of a new initiative -- an aviation training academy. After taking over loss-making Air India in January this year, Tata group has been working on consolidating its airline business. On November 2, Air India said an operational review process is underway to integrate budget carrier AirAsia India with Air India Express and the merger is likely to be completed by the end of 2023.

Parl panel calls for digital competition Act for tech firms

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

A parliamentary committee on finance has red flagged anti-competitive practices of big tech companies and said that in digital businesses the winners take all within three-five years after the market starts to develop. The panel has, therefore, asked for digital competition Act for big tech firms.

The report says by the time policies can be formulated or anti-competitive behaviours be adjudicated, markets tip in one direction and a winner emerges. "Thus, the committee recommends that competitive behaviour needs to be evaluated ex-ante before markets end up monopolised instead of the ex-post evaluation being carried out at present," reads the report. The panel recommended India must identify the small number of leading players or market winners that can negatively influence competitive conduct in the digital ecosystem, as 'Systemically Important Digital Intermediaries (SIDIs) based on their revenues, market capitalization, and number of active firms.

'India must identify market winners'

The parliamentary committee recommended India must identify the small number of leading players or market winners that can negatively influence competitive conduct in the digital ecosystem

It further says India should adopt definitions to ex-ante regulate the behaviour of systemically important digital intermediaries as has already been done by various legislations across the world.

"The committee recommend that stakeholders, working with the Competition Commission of India (CCI) and the central government, must collaborate to arrive at a reasonable definition of SIDIs," recommends the report.

The panel is in favour of platform neutrality as otherwise it can lead to a negative effect on downstream markets, as their profits decline and an unfair advantage is provided to the leading player i.e. the platform itself. The committee strongly recommends that an SIDI must not favour its own offers over the offers of its competitors. It advises that an SIDI should not force business users or end users to subscribe to, or register with, any further services as a condition for being able to use, access, sign up for or register with any of that platform's core platform service.

Jio deposits ₹3,720 cr for Reliance Infratel buyout

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

TELECOM operator Reliance Jio is believed to have deposited ₹3,720 crore in an SBI escrow account to complete the acquisition of Reliance Infratel (RITL), under an insolvency process.

The deal, which is pending since November 2019, is likely to be finalised soon. In November 2019, Mukesh Ambani-led Jio placed a bid of ₹3,720 crore to acquire assets of a debt-ridden subsidiary of his brother Anil Ambani's firm Reliance Communications. On March 4, 2022, the Committee of Creditors approved the resolution plan with a 100% vote. However, the implementation of the resolution plan was delayed due to pendency of the proceedings over distribution of the amount and issuance of 'no dues' certificate. However, the matter of fund distribution is still pending in Supreme court.

On November 6, Jio had proposed to deposit ₹3,720 crore in an escrow account to complete the acquisition. The company has also asked NCLT to speed up acquisition of RITL as the delay in acquisition of assets will deteriorate value. Meanwhile, Reliance Jio has bagged a deal from the Indian Oil Corporation Limited (IOCL) for deploying its Software Defined-Wide Area Network (SD-WAN) solution across the oil company's 7,200 retail outlets for a period of five years. "JioBusiness, the Enterprise arm of Reliance Jio Infocomm Ltd will be deploying and managing SD-WAN for IOCL across its 7,200 retail outlets for a period of 5 years," said the company in a press note.

'No major shakeup in exchange governance rules'

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

THE recent announcement made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) for tightening of governance in stock exchanges, depositories and clearing corporations are welcome changes but are largely largely incremental in nature, experts told this newspapers.

The capital market regulator on Tuesday announced a raft of measures after its board meeting in Mumbai. One of its recommendations said that Market Infrastructure Institutions (stock exchanges, depositories and clearing corporations) functions will now be categorised into three verticals. The first would be critical operations. Second is the regulatory, compliance and risk management functions and the third is other functions.

Experts say that the these steps will boost investors' confidence in these institutions, strengthen the MIIs and bring more clarity and sharpness to the daily functioning of these institutions. "The Board has recognised and correctly so, that the first two functions have to be provided with higher resource allocation. The fact that institutions like stock exchanges always had a dual role previously has been well understood and now with this categorical segregation will over time strengthen these important institutions even further," said Yash J Ashar, Partner, Head-Capital Markets, Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas.

The Board of SEBI has also recommended that additional items such as board minutes of such entities relating to regulatory, compliance and risk management need to be disclosed on their website

"Among other changes for such entities, SEBI has also indicated that the code of conduct be made sharper. Overall, these changes are welcome and are expected to bring transparency and accountability from a market perspective," said Ashar.

Experts, however, say there is a need to effectively enforce existing regulations. "These are incremental changes. The key is to have better enforcement," said Sandeep Parekh, founder of Finsec Law Advisors, a financial sector law firm based in Mumbai.

The Sebi board has approved most of the recommendations made by the G Mahalingam committee on improving governance standards at market infrastructure institutions.

"The first set of reforms relates to MII (code for stock exchanges, clearing corporations and depositories). These are based on the recommendations of the Mahalingam Committee report and can't really be faulted. But they are incremental in nature," added Parekh.

He said Sebi has stated that MIIs should give higher priority to operations and regulatory work compared to business development.

BEING a pacer who thrives in subcontinental countries is never easy. You get called up for the national team very early in your career and if you are not able to sustain it, you go down the pecking order faster than your rise to the top. It was the case in Indian cricket, especially until the first half of the 2010s. Ask Umesh Yadav and Jaydev Unadkat. The latter was the first to play for India at 19 in 2010, while Umesh made his debut less than a year after. Unadkat had a disastrous debut in South Africa and Umesh was taken apart in Australia. Soon, the duo found themselves back in the domestic system where they had to toil for years.

Almost 11 years after making their debuts, Umesh and Unadkat were in the middle again, playing for India together during the second Test against Bangladesh. They shared six wickets between them as the hosts were bundled out for 227 on Thursday. Now, Umesh is a proven international performer in subcontinental conditions. Since the start of 2016, no pacer has taken more wickets than him in Asia. He might not be a regular in the XI when they tour overseas, but Umesh has been India's biggest match-winning fast bowler in these conditions.

Thursday was no different as he finished with 4/25 in 15 overs, including four maidens.

Umesh Yadav spearheaded the Indian attack by claiming 4/25 on Thursday | AFP

From his first ball where Mohammed Siraj dropped a catch, Umesh looked in control. On a surface that had spongy bounce, he kept hitting the right areas, testing the patience of the batters. He bowled tight lengths with the new ball, challenging Najmul Hossain Shanto and Zakir Hasan. And when he returned to bowl with the old bowl, trying to reverse it, the pacer reaped rewards.

If Umesh has established himself in international cricket, Unadkat has been doing the same year after year in the domestic circuit. Since the 2015-16 season, no pacer has a better record than him in Indian domestic cricket. And yet, the call-up for India A, leave alone India, kept eluding. But once it was clear that Mohammed Shami was not going to recover in time, the chance he waited for years came along. And when he took the field, he did not disappoint. The left-arm pacer did what he does best, creating awkward angles and generating extra bounce to trouble the batters. And the relief after taking his first Test wicket, 12 years and 2 days after his debut, said it all.

No one was more happier for him than Umesh, who was there with Unadkat when the left-arm seamer made his debut. "I'm very happy for him that he finally got his chance. When he came into bowl with the new ball, the ball was doing a bit, many balls took the nick of batter's gloves," said Umesh after the day's play.

Umesh also reasoned with the non-selection of Kuldeep Yadav, who was the player of the match in the first Test, which surprised many. He said that it has happened to him in the past. "Sometimes you are out of the team because of performance and sometimes it's a management's call," he said.

R Ashwin took four wickets and India went to stumps in command. But Thursday was all about Umesh and Unadkat. They were picked for India before they were ready in 2010. They went through the grind to become the best in such conditions. And over a decade after their maiden call-up, the duo had a good day together on the field. While it is hard to say whether they would get to share the field for India again, for now, it would be fair to say that they have come full circle.

MINI AUCTION, BIG PAY DAY

Often, the smaller auctions have seen some players go for record price and the mini auction for the 2023 IPL could be no different. A look at the key talking points...

THE BIG BUZZ

The T20 World Cup winners are likely to dominate the auction, especially Ben Stokes and Sam Curran. But there is Australia's Cameroon Green who too could set the hammer on fire. They all have an underlying common thread - overseas fastbowling all-rounders. Kane Williamson and Nicholas Pooran, both having captained teams in the IPL, are the other big names in play.

THE INDIAN HEAVYWEIGHTS

Mayank Agarwal, who captained Punjab Kings in 2022, is the biggest India international in the auction. There is Jaydev Unadkat, having made his Test comeback after 12 years, who is also likely to find himself a team in the auction. The others include Ajinkya Rahane, Mayank Markande and Manish Pandey.

THE LOW-KEY FOREIGNERS

Every once in a while, some low-key foreign players, on the back of impressive international performances, get a gig in the IPL. This year, it looks promising for Ireland left-arm pacer Josh Little and UAE spinner Karthik Meiyappan. There is also the 15-year-old Afghan mystery spinner Allah Mohammad Ghazanfar.

THE DOMESTIC UNKNOWNS

Scores of players have given trials for multiple franchises and some of them have been asked to be included in the shortlist on the urging of teams. Vivek Singh of Railways, Vidarbha's Yash Thakur, Himachal's Akash Vasisht are some of the names to keep an eye on. Another set of J&K pacers — Sharukh Dar and Mujtaba Yousuf — are on the radar as well. Not to mention N Jagadeesan after his record-breaking show.

THE IMPACT PLAYER RULE

As per the new rule, apart from the playing XI, a team can have four substitutes and use one of them as an impact player in a game. And the player who is replaced will not take part in the rest of the game in any capacity. It should not affect the basic rule of not having more than four overseas players in the XI. That said, a batter who got out could be replaced to add depth with a bowler not getting to bat and a powerplay bowler could be replaced after his quota of overs by a death bowler and go on to complete his four overs. It will be interesting to see what kind of impact the rule has in the auction dynamics.

THE MAXIMUMS & MINIMUMS

Sunrisers Hyderbad have the most valuable purse having let go off their big names and they could be the team to come out swinging in this auction with as many as 13 spots to fill. Meanwhile, Kolkata Knight Riders, despite having 11 slots to fill, have only ₹7.05 crores after the pre-auction trades. It will be interesting to see how the rest of their team shapes up.

Rashford's solo goal sets Man United on their way

AFP @ London

MARCUS Rashford marked his return from World Cup duty with a brilliant solo goal as Manchester United advanced into the quarterfinals of the League Cup on Wednesday with a 2-0 win over Burnley while Premier League rivals Brighton were knocked out by third-tier Charlton.

United's first game since the World Cup was also their first since Cristiano Ronaldo's dramatic departure from Old Trafford and an announcement by owners the Glazer family that they were prepared to sell the football giants. The Red Devils went ahead in the 27th minute through a close-range finish from Denmark's Christian Eriksen, who also featured at Qatar 2022. Rashford, who scored three goals for England at the World Cup, doubled United's lead against second-tier Championship leaders Burnley, managed by former Manchester City star Vincent Kompany, just before the hour mark in superb style.

The England forward went on a run from inside his own half and into the visitors' box before drilling a shot low into the net.

"There is space in front of you and you're almost waiting for the right time to get a pass off but the gap opened and thankfully it went in," Rashford told Sky Sports.

This was Rashford's first match since England's agonising World Cup quarter-final loss to France, with the forward saying: "It was such a disappointing feeling to be knocked out and you have to pick yourselves up.

"There is no time to feel sorry for yourself. You need to pick up results and thankfully we did that today."

United manager Erik ten Hag added: "There is still room for improvement but I am pleased with the win.

"The players are hungry after the World Cup break."

Burnley boss Kompany was proud of his side's performance, saying: "We didn't roll over, we were aggressive, we were on front foot, we created some chances."

Brighton bowed out on spot-kicks three days after their Argentina star Alexis Mac Allister won the World Cup with Argentina in a penalty shoot-out. Mac Allister was not involved on Wednesday after being given time off following his World Cup heroics and was thus spared any involvement away to southeast London side Charlton.

Rishav, Gokul hit tons, Assam 5 runs short of lead

AGENCIES @ Guwahati

RISHAV Das and Gokul Sharma wore out an inexperienced Delhi attack with patient hundreds as Assam require five runs to get the all-important first innings lead but only have two wickets in hand going into the final day of the Ranji Trophy group B match here.

Delhi had scored 439 in their first innings, riding on opener Dhruv Shorey's unbeaten 252 while Assam ended day three at 435 for 8, needing five more runs to get three points from the game. Rishav (160, 229 balls) and veteran Gokul (140, 299 balls) added 256 runs for the fifth wicket to put Assam in a commanding position before they lost a flurry of wickets only to recover towards the end, courtesy a 57-run unbroken ninth wicket stand between Mukhtar Hussain (40 batting) and Sidharth Sarmah (16 batting).

On Friday morning, Assam look favourites to get those remaining five runs.

For Delhi, it was the inexperienced bowling attack that brought about their downfall. Debutant medium pacers Harshit Rana (3/86 in 30 overs) and Pranshu Vijayran (3/82 in 24 overs) bowled their hearts out but Rishav and Gokul flayed them for nearly 70 overs.

Select scores: Group A: Odisha 213 & 97/4 in 34 ovs (Sarangi 59 batting; Mishra 2/29) vs Uttarakhand 477 in 143 ovs (Jiwanjot 218, Swapnil 65; Suryakant 3/90). Group B: At Guwahati: Delhi 439 vs Assam 1st Innings 435/8 in 128 ovs (Rishav 160, Gokul 140; Rana 3/86, Vijayran 3/82); At Coimbatore: Andhra 297 & 162/5 in 53 ovs (Bhui 62 batting) vs Tamil Nadu 345 in 112.1 ovs (Sai Sudharsan 113, Baba Aparajith 88, Nithish Reddy 4/37); At Mumbai: Mumbai 651/6 decl bt Hyderabad 214 (f/o) & 220 in 67.2 ovs (Buddhi 65; Mulani 4/82, Kotian 5/82). Group C: At Bengaluru: Puducherry 170 & 127 in 43 ovs (More 4/36, Vyshak 3/23, Kaverappa 2/44) lost to Karnataka 304; At Jaipur: Rajasthan 337 & 278/5 in 76 ovs (Hooda 106 batting, Tomar 68; Saxena 3/79) vs Kerala 306 in 82.5 ovs (Baby 139, Samson 82; Choudhary 5/85, Suthar 3/87). Group D: At Delhi: Railways 59/5 in 32 ovs (Kaul 3/19) vs Punjab; At Ahmedabad: Gujarat 307 & 11/1 in 2.5 ovs bt Jammu and Kashmir 135 (f/o) & 182 in 58 ovs (Desai 8/66, Patel 2/55).

Karnataka jump to top

Bengaluru: Karnataka pace trio of Ronit More, Vidwath Kaverappa and Vijaykumar Vyshak dished out a clinical show to power their team to an innings and seven run win over Puducherry in their Group C match here on Thursday. Karnataka's seniomost pacer More returned with figures of 4/36, while Vyshak (3/23) and Kaverappa (2/44) gave regular breakthroughs as Puducherry innings lasted just 16 overs on the third day to be bowled out for 127.

Resuming the day on 58/3, Puducherry lost two wickets in an over with Kaverappa inflicting the double blow when he cleaned up both the overnight batters — Sridhar Ashwath and Jay Pande — in the second over of the day. More then got into the act as Karnataka sealed a bonus point victory with a day to spare to jump to the top of the Group C table with 10 points. Opener Ravikumar Samarth (137) was adjudged man-of-the-match for his first innings century that led Karnataka to 304.

In Delhi, Chhattisgarh inched closer to a second successive victory, putting Services in a spot with 145/4 in their second essay. Services still trailed by 31 runs.

Centuries from their No. 5 Amandeep Khare (125 not out) and No. 7 batter Ajay Mandal (114) handed them a crucial first innings lead of 176.

Match restarts, Rlys 59/5

New Delhi: Pitch remained the centre of attention at the Karnail Singh Stadium here as the ball kept the batters on tenterhooks after the Group D match between Punjab and Railways had to be restarted here on Thursday. Reduced to a two-day affair, Railways batters found the going tough and ended the day at 59/5 from 32 overs after Punjab opted to bowl.

The match was finally restarted at 2pm after Match Referee Youraj Singh gave a go ahead following a long discussion with both team skippers Mandeep Singh and Karn Sharma. Karnail Singh Stadium has been notorious for producing some of the worst tracks in the country for years and the venue had also been suspended on earlier occasions. It is understood that BCCI could take action once it receives report from the on-field umpires and the match referee.

Their fixture had to be suspended after the surface was deemed 'dangerous and unfit for play' by the match officials on Wednesday as it got off to a fresh start on an adjacent pitch. As many as 24 wickets tumbled in 103 overs with fast bowlers accounting for 20 of them when play was stopped by the match officials. Punjab were at 18/4 in their second essay after taking a 12-run first innings lead.

Pele's cancer worsens, kidneys & heart affected

AGENCIES @ Sao Paulo

PELE'S health has worsened during his hospital stay to regulate his cancer medication, doctors said Wednesday. The Albert Einstein hospital in Sao Paulo said in a statement Wednesday that Pele's cancer has advanced and that the 82-year-old Brazilian football great is under "elevated care" related to "kidney and cardiac dysfunctions." The hospital did not mention any signs of the three-time World Cup winner's recent respiratory infection, which was aggravated by Covid-19. Edson Arantes do Nascimento, who is globally known as Pele, is undergoing chemotherapy in his fight against cancer since he had a colon tumor removed in September 2021. Neither his family nor the hospital have said whether it had spread to other organs.

Kely Nascimento, one of his daughters, said Pele will stay in the hospital during Christmas. "We decided with doctors that, for many reasons, it will be best for us to stay here, with all the care that this new family at Einstein gives us," she wrote on Instagram.

"We will even make some caipirinhas (no kidding). We love you and we will give up an update next week." Pele led Brazil to victory the 1958, 1962 and 1970 World Cups.
